THANK YOU

Thank you church family for all the calls, texts, cards and prayers after the death of my brother, Tommy Mitchell.

We appreciate each one of you.

Doug and Glenda Spoon

Thank You Note

Thank you for your donations, gifts and cards to the ladies that just graduated from the Compass Program. Thank you also for paying for the food for our celebration. I appreciate all our volunteers, teachers, Bible Study leaders, van drivers and mentors. Since 2019 we have had 40 participants and 30 completers of the Program! None of this would be possible without the support of Piedmont First Baptist Church. We give God all the glory for the change in the women's lives.

Continue to pray for the Compass Program. Thank you,

Pam Jones

SERMON NOTES

Jerusalem in Sight, the Cross in View

Mark 11:1–11

1. Jesus had already told the disciples what would happen in _____.

Mark 10:32 — “See, we are going up to _____.”

They heard His words...

but they did not fully _____ them.

2. When they drew near to Jerusalem, everyone saw the same city — but not the same _____.

The disciples saw a _____.

The crowd saw a _____.

The Pharisees saw a _____.

Jesus saw the _____.

We often see the moment...

but Jesus sees the _____.

3. The colt shows what kind of King Jesus is. (vv. 2–6)

Jesus chose a _____, not a war horse.

This fulfilled _____.

We often want power.

God sends _____.

4. The crowd praised Jesus, but misunderstood His kingdom. (vv. 7–10)

They shouted: _____

This means: _____

They wanted salvation from _____,

but Jesus came to save from _____.

It is possible to worship Jesus and still not understand who He really _____.

5. Some rejected Jesus because He threatened their control.

Some people reject Christ not because He is unclear, but because He is _____.

Jesus challenges our pride, our control,

and our desire to rule our own _____.

6. The disciples expected a throne, but Jesus saw the cross.

They believed this was the moment of _____.

But Jesus knew this week would bring _____.

What looked like victory was actually the beginning of the _____.

God's greatest work often looks like _____ before it becomes victory.
