SERMON NOTES

WHERE DID IT FALL?

2 Kings 6:1–7

God cannot restore what we refuse to honestly identify.

I. Where Did We Fall?

The Question Every Person Must Answer

- The problem is deeper than our circumstances.
- Humanity's greatest loss began in the Garden.
- Sin separated us from God.
- Christ alone can recover what was lost. Romans 3:23

II. Where Did You Fall?

The Question Every Believer Must Answer

- Spiritual decline is usually gradual.
- We can be busy serving and still lose our first love.
- Honest examination always precedes restoration.
- Jesus calls us to remember, repent, and return.

Revelation 2:5

III. How Does God Restore What Has Fallen?

The Question Only God Can Answer

- God knows exactly where it was lost.
- The wood points us to the Cross.
- Grace accomplishes what we never could.
- God calls us to respond in faith and obedience.

“Take it up.” — 2 Kings 6:7

Conclusion

“Where did it fall?”

- Where did you first drift from God?
- What has been lost that Christ desires to restore?
- Will you respond to His invitation today? 1 John 1:9
