Here my eyes on Calv’ry, Calv’ry is my bright world now;
There a deathless grace, amazing, Falls like dew upon its brow:
Hill of Calv’ry, Hill of Calv’ry, There, my soul, make thou thy nest.

There I hear the breeze deliver Psalms of heav’n to earth below;
Which were taught by Babel’ river In the land of wail and woe:
Hill of Calv’ry, Hill of Calv’ry, Makes the earth aglow with heav’n.

Here behold a sinner pleading, Wither’d in a flame of wrong;
From his captive chains now speeding, And to heav’n he leaps along:

Hill of Calv’ry, Hill of Calv’ry, Ever now his song shall be! Amen.

Confession of Faith

Mark 14:22-28

And as they were eating, he took bread, and after blessing it broke it and gave it to them, and said, “Take; this is my body.” And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, and they all drank of it. And he said to them, “This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. Truly, I say to you, I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.” And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. And Jesus said to them, “You will all fall away, for it is written, ‘I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.’ But after I am raised up, I will go before you to Galilee.”

Assurance of Pardon

Ephesians 2:4-10

But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.
