

Questions for Reflection

Where do you look for assurance and hope? In what ways do you look to your feelings, intellect, and/or will?

In what ways have you, do you, or are you trying to bring about God's promise(s) on your own?

In what ways has God proven himself to be faithful in your life and/or here at Redeemer Fellowship?

Hebrews 6:13-20

13 For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he had no one greater by whom to swear, he swore by himself, 14 saying, "Surely I will bless you and multiply you." 15 And thus Abraham, having patiently waited, obtained the promise. 16 For people swear by something greater than themselves, and in all their disputes an oath is final for confirmation. 17 So when God desired to show more convincingly to the heirs of the promise the unchangeable character of his purpose, he guaranteed it with an oath, 18 so that by two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to hold fast to the hope set before us. 19 We have this as a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul, a hope that enters into the inner place behind the curtain, 20 where Jesus has gone as a forerunner on our behalf, having become a high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek..

An Anchor for the Soul

Hebrews 6:13-20

Main Point: It is not our faith that causes God to keep his promise, but God's keeping of his promise that brings about our faith.

Our hope is given by God's unbreakable promise. (vv. 13-16)

Our hope is rooted in God's unchanging nature. (vv. 17-19)

Our hope is experienced through our progressive growth. (vv. 18-19)

Our hope is guaranteed by Christ's sufficient work (vv. 19-20).
