

CALL TO WORSHIP:

Good Morning, Church Family! Our prayer as you spend time at home today is that you would be encouraged to keep your eyes fixed on Jesus. While we are apart, we pray that God meets us where we are to encourage, convict and remind us of the love He has for us!

We love you, church! Stay safe and we look forward to being back together next week!

Psalm 40:16-17 (Call to Worship)

But may all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you;

may those who love your salvation say continually, "Great is the LORD!"

As for me I am poor and needy but the Lord takes thought for me.

You are my help and my deliverer, do not delay, O my God!

CORPORATE CONFESSION

Lord, you have given us the gift of the church through Your Son Jesus. While we gather in our homes this morning, we confess that the couch can be more comfortable and convenient. Would you guard us against a complacent heart that might be tempted to see our living rooms as a replacement for the church. Remind us of the beauty of your body.

PRAYER POINTS

- Show us the areas of our lives where religion or irreligion take place over Jesus. Give us the humility to be corrected.
- Point us to the grace you give us even when we give way to religion or irreligion.

BENEDICTION

"For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, ¹² training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, ¹³ waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, ¹⁴ who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works." Titus 2:11-14
