

LOOKING BACK

Use this simple tool to look back and reflect on the previous year.

Connecting UP with God

As you think about your year and your time spent with God in the Word, prayer, and other spiritual habits, what would you say went well, what could have been better, and what was the best?

Connecting OUT with God's Mission

We are ambassadors for Christ, and are commanded to connect with the world around us for God's glory and their good. As you think about the past year, what would you say went well, what could have been better, and what was the best in your efforts to engage the world with the mission of God?
