
Wishing you a blessed New Year!

It has been a joy to celebrate the holidays with most of our family. Because of the recent hurricanes, the San Pedro Sula airport was closed causing Jeremy, Andrea, and Marcy to travel through El Salvador. Despite some delays, God was so gracious to get them here safe and sound. We miss Jonathan and Madison, who were unable to travel due to the soon arrival of their son (due February 2).

As we look back at this unusual year, the Lord has been so good to protect us and has allowed the MEDA/SEPE students to finish out their academic year. We look forward to His immense grace in the coming year as we begin a new year of ministry. Please keep us, our church and the MEDA ministry in your constant prayers.

We pray that God will fill your new year with His blessings and you will be strengthened to serve Him wholeheartedly.

Thank you for partnering with us as we serve Christ here in Honduras.

Grace and Peace,
The Montoya Family
