Dear Members & Friends of REPC,

Thank you all for your prayers, the many cards received, and the wonderful meals that so many of you brought to us after Barb's recent knee surgery. REPC has always been known for its compassion, sense of community, and care, and we felt loved by all of these gracious expressions of your commitment to us.

-With gratitude, Bruce & Barb Bell

A Certainty that Demands Confession

Missionary Spotlight Fostering Hope | Fostering Hope was started in 2019 by Lori Flowers as a way to support and encourage families at Rivermont and in our community who care for foster children. Foster and adoptive families need community to surround them in their calling, and Fostering Hope provides an opportunity for everyone at Rivermont to serve these families by offering meals, practical needs (bunk beds, strollers, car seats, etc.), transporting children to appointments, mentoring children, and other important avenues. To get more information, go to our website: rivermont.org/fostering-hope or contact Lori at (434) 660-1168.
