

REPC CONGRATULATES OUR 2024 GRADUATES!

RIVERMONT'S HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

Noah Caldwell, New Covenant Schools. He will attend University of Lynchburg in the Westover Honors program studying Music Education.

Anna Grant, homeschool. She will attend Liberty University studying Studio Art and Commercial Music.

Micaiah Hall, homeschool. He will attend Liberty University studying Chemistry.

Olivia McCombs, E. C. Glass High School and Central Virginia Community College with an Associate Degree. She will attend Liberty University studying Nursing.

Catherine Meyer, Jefferson Forest High School and Central Virginia Governor's School. She will attend The University of Tennessee studying Engineering.

Mary Glenn Morse, New Covenant Schools. She will attend Presbyterian College studying Biology with plans to pursue Physical Therapy. She will be a member of their Acrobatics and Tumbling Team.

Megan Nelson, E. C. Glass High School and Central Virginia Governor's School. She will attend Liberty University studying Forensic Science.

Eleanor Petersen, Liberty Christian Academy. She will attend Liberty University.

Nicolas Plude, Heritage High School; will attend Central Virginia Community College for Advanced EMT training. He hopes to work for the Fire Department.

Brooklyn Shields, Timberlake Christian School. She will attend Liberty University studying Respiratory Therapy.

Peyton Weaver, E. C. Glass High School. She will attend Virginia Tech studying Biology.

Amelia Weber, Timberlake Christian School. She will attend Liberty University studying Business.

Jackson Whelan, Heritage High School. He will attend Central Virginia Community College.

RIVERMONT'S COLLEGE GRADUATES

Sophie Brasher, Liberty University with a degree in Interdisciplinary Studies. She will be working at Liberty University but hopes to teach English as a second language overseas in the future.

James Carrig, Liberty University School of Law with a Juris Doctor. He hopes to practice law in the Lynchburg area after the bar exam in July.

Bailey Foster, Grove City College with a degree in Exercise Science. She will work in Lynchburg as a personal trainer.

Molly Pickard, Liberty University with a degree in English with a concentration in Writing.

Abigail Hall Rives, Emory University with a Masters Degree in Public Health.

Russell Roberts, Liberty University with a degree in Biomedical Sciences.

Evan Massie Ware, D.O. completed his Emergency Medicine Residency at VCU Medical Center; he will begin his Medical Practice as an Emergency Physician for Centra Health in Lynchburg and Farmville.

Luke Whelan, Central Virginia Community College with an Associate Degree. He will attend Liberty University studying Sports Management.

REPC CONGRATULATES OUR 2024 GRADUATES!

RIVERMONT'S HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

Noah Caldwell, New Covenant Schools. He will attend University of Lynchburg in the Westover Honors program studying Music Education.

Anna Grant, homeschool. She will attend Liberty University studying Studio Art and Commercial Music.

Micaiah Hall, homeschool. He will attend Liberty University studying Chemistry.

Olivia McCombs, E. C. Glass High School and Central Virginia Community College with an Associate Degree. She will attend Liberty University studying Nursing.

Catherine Meyer, Jefferson Forest High School and Central Virginia Governor's School. She will attend The University of Tennessee studying Engineering.

Mary Glenn Morse, New Covenant Schools. She will attend Presbyterian College studying Biology with plans to pursue Physical Therapy. She will be a member of their Acrobatics and Tumbling Team.

Megan Nelson, E. C. Glass High School and Central Virginia Governor's School. She will attend Liberty University studying Forensic Science.

Eleanor Petersen, Liberty Christian Academy. She will attend Liberty University.

Nicolas Plude, Heritage High School; will attend Central Virginia Community College for Advanced EMT training. He hopes to work for the Fire Department.

Brooklyn Shields, Timberlake Christian School. She will attend Liberty University studying Respiratory Therapy.

Peyton Weaver, E. C. Glass High School. She will attend Virginia Tech studying Biology.

Amelia Weber, Timberlake Christian School. She will attend Liberty University studying Business.

Jackson Whelan, Heritage High School. He will attend Central Virginia Community College.

RIVERMONT'S COLLEGE GRADUATES

Sophie Brasher, Liberty University with a degree in Interdisciplinary Studies. She will be working at Liberty University but hopes to teach English as a second language overseas in the future.

James Carrig, Liberty University School of Law with a Juris Doctor. He hopes to practice law in the Lynchburg area after the bar exam in July.

Bailey Foster, Grove City College with a degree in Exercise Science. She will work in Lynchburg as a personal trainer.

Molly Pickard, Liberty University with a degree in English with a concentration in Writing.

Abigail Hall Rives, Emory University with a Masters Degree in Public Health.

Russell Roberts, Liberty University with a degree in Biomedical Sciences.

Evan Massie Ware, D.O. completed his Emergency Medicine Residency at VCU Medical Center; he will begin his Medical Practice as an Emergency Physician for Centra Health in Lynchburg and Farmville.

Luke Whelan, Central Virginia Community College with an Associate Degree. He will attend Liberty University studying Sports Management.

REPC CONGRATULATES OUR 2024 GRADUATES!

RIVERMONT'S HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

Noah Caldwell, New Covenant Schools. He will attend University of Lynchburg in the Westover Honors program studying Music Education.

Anna Grant, homeschool. She will attend Liberty University studying Studio Art and Commercial Music.

Micaiah Hall, homeschool. He will attend Liberty University studying Chemistry.

Olivia McCombs, E. C. Glass High School and Central Virginia Community College with an Associate Degree. She will attend Liberty University studying Nursing.

Catherine Meyer, Jefferson Forest High School and Central Virginia Governor's School. She will attend The University of Tennessee studying Engineering.

Mary Glenn Morse, New Covenant Schools. She will attend Presbyterian College studying Biology with plans to pursue Physical Therapy. She will be a member of their Acrobatics and Tumbling Team.

Megan Nelson, E. C. Glass High School and Central Virginia Governor's School. She will attend Liberty University studying Forensic Science.

Eleanor Petersen, Liberty Christian Academy. She will attend Liberty University.

Nicolas Plude, Heritage High School; will attend Central Virginia Community College for Advanced EMT training. He hopes to work for the Fire Department.

Brooklyn Shields, Timberlake Christian School. She will attend Liberty University studying Respiratory Therapy.

Peyton Weaver, E. C. Glass High School. She will attend Virginia Tech studying Biology.

Amelia Weber, Timberlake Christian School. She will attend Liberty University studying Business.

Jackson Whelan, Heritage High School. He will attend Central Virginia Community College.

RIVERMONT'S COLLEGE GRADUATES

Sophie Brasher, Liberty University with a degree in Interdisciplinary Studies. She will be working at Liberty University but hopes to teach English as a second language overseas in the future.

James Carrig, Liberty University School of Law with a Juris Doctor. He hopes to practice law in the Lynchburg area after the bar exam in July.

Bailey Foster, Grove City College with a degree in Exercise Science. She will work in Lynchburg as a personal trainer.

Molly Pickard, Liberty University with a degree in English with a concentration in Writing.

Abigail Hall Rives, Emory University with a Masters Degree in Public Health.

Russell Roberts, Liberty University with a degree in Biomedical Sciences.

Evan Massie Ware, D.O. completed his Emergency Medicine Residency at VCU Medical Center; he will begin his Medical Practice as an Emergency Physician for Centra Health in Lynchburg and Farmville.

Luke Whelan, Central Virginia Community College with an Associate Degree. He will attend Liberty University studying Sports Management.