Missionary Spotlight Oong & Elena Lee | Oong and Elena are Serge team leaders, church planting in Southwest London, which has seen much decline in Christianity and an increase in those claiming no religion. Kingston is both economically and ethnically diverse, with large numbers of immigrants from around the world. Oong and Elena seek to cultivate an intercultural church that would be a home for members of the diaspora community who seek understanding and a sense of belonging in the diverse culture in which they have been brought up. Pray that Oong and Elena would be bold, expectant, and full of love and faith as they engage and befriend people in Kingston, trusting that God would use these friendships to build genuine trust and open natural opportunities to share the hope of the gospel.
