August 12th, 2018

1. What in the sermon encouraged you, comforted you, challenged you, or informed you?
2. Generally speaking what are things that increase our trust of leaders among us and those things that decrease our trust of leaders?
3. How do these census records communicate God's care for his sheep? What glorious promises does John record about each of God's numbered sheep (John 10:24-29)?
4. Read the familiar Psalm 23. What does this psalm reveal about God's leadership of his people and the blessings we receive from his leadership? How does this comfort us in the chaos of trials?
5. The Lord called Moses to transition his leadership to Joshua, his successor. We find that Joshua will lead the people to go out (to battle) and to come in (from battle) to rest and develop the nation. Read Deuteronomy 31:7-8. What were Moses' final words to Joshua and how would these covenant promises strengthen him and all leaders that rely on God's promise and provision as they lead?
