December 23rd, 2018

1. What in the sermon encouraged you, comforted you, challenged you, or informed you?
2. According to 1 Corinthians 12:33 how is our intimacy with God limited now and how will our intimacy with God change when the “perfection comes” or rather when Jesus returns to bring perfect restoration to this creation?
3. Read Revelation 21:3, 21:22, and 22:3. What do these verses reveal about the presence of God in the new creation? What might worship be like in the new creation if the whole world is a temple?
4. Why do we have a tendency to put ultimate allegiance and hope in specific leaders of corporations, countries, and churches? According to Psalm 146:1-4 why does the Psalmist warn us to not put ultimate allegiance and hope in authorities?
5. According to Psalm 146:5-10, what is God doing in his leadership as King over creation and why is he more worthy of our hope and allegiance as King?
