

OCTOBER 2025 NEWSLETTER

Dear FRIENDS:

Many of us are preparing for this weekend's Thanksgiving celebration. Some may have already gathered, while others will do so after the weekend. Whenever you choose to acknowledge this annual event, may our hearts overflow with thanksgiving—first to Jesus, whom we know as our Lord and Saviour—for His unconditional love for all mankind. May this moment serve as a fresh reminder of His power to save and stir us to say a prayer for someone who has not yet realized His love for them.

God sees our hearts and He hears all of our prayers. Don't let anyone distract you from the truth that we are answerable to God and cause you not to do the things He may be calling you to do for His kingdom. Our obedience to Him could bring the unexpected blessing. Sometimes God will ask us to do something, or to speak or pray.

I pray that His wisdom will guide you to do what He desires, this Thanksgiving weekend and beyond.

2 Peter 3:9 reminds us:

"The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance."

Note these three words —“unconditional,” “longsuffering,” and “all.”

I pray that the favour of our Lord will rest on you this Thanksgiving and throughout the rest of the year. May He lead you in ways that will make a meaningful difference for His Kingdom.

A heartfelt thank you for staying connected—and for your support of this ministry in the past, present, and, as the Lord leads, in the future.

As the end of this year approaches, our mission is preparing to look at our budget for the upcoming year. This year, we have received limited support, and we are actively seeking ways to increase our financial resource for our sponsorship programs in 2026. With Canada Post on strike, we are facing an additional setback in our year-end fundraising efforts.

With that said, I have an initiative you can participate in:

I would like to invite you to take part in this simple but meaningful initiative—beginning at your Thanksgiving gathering, or even at upcoming Christmas preparations with friends and family.

Would you consider visiting your local dollar store, purchase a pack of Thank You cards, and placing them on your table?

In your own words, you could say something like:

“As a thank you to God for my salvation, I am helping to raise funds for a Canadian mission called SCA—as a gift to assist their ministry in helping others come to know Him.”

Friends, when we know what we know as believers—the access we have to God through prayer, and the truth about eternity—perhaps He is waiting for us to act on someone else's behalf, to allow Him to move. Please prayerfully consider this, and take courage if you sense He is inspiring you to step out. He will honour your obedience in ways that will truly amaze you.

I'm sending you this challenge because you are already connected to our ministry and share in our faith. As we look at the state of our world today, there's an undeniable urgency to spread the Good News of the Gospel. SCA has the people resource—we call them Intern. What we're lacking is the financial support to send them. Would you help us help them?

We are all serving in the one Great Commission—to build God's Kingdom. I believe you are here for such a time as this, to step out and assist our ministry in its financial need.

Proverbs 11:30 says:

“The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, and he who wins souls is wise.”
