will be faithful to complete it.*

Phillipians 1:6

Dear Supporter:

This month we will be experiencing multiple changes: on the 21st we will be transitioning into the new season of summer, YES! Next, we are in the process of giving our Mission a 'facelift' so to speak and on a personal note, a family member is relocating to a different province in Canada. I would consider these major events that will require some major adjustments, though all of the above are in a positive way.

As we journey through life, change is inevitable. However, there is One who remains constant throughout every change. Malachi 3:6 says, "For I the Lord do not change;..."

These are the words from God Himself, spoken through the prophet Malachi. God's nature is unchanging. Here are some other scripture to support:

Hebrews 13:8 (ESV): "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever."

James 1:17 (ESV): "...with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change."

Every Christian can apply this truth made available to them throughout their lives, to remain faithful to God and be successful in life. Rejoice when change is good and when it requires some hard work to reach fruition, trust the One whose Words never changes. He will soon turn things around and you will eventually rejoice at His mighty works.

David testified in Psalm 92:5 these words, "O LORD, how great are Your works! Your thoughts are very deep." Friends, God's way are not our ways. We must trust Him!

"... God, who began the good work within you, will continue His work until it is finally finished on the day when Christ Jesus returns."

God who has started the work of the season, the mission or the changes in your life or your family, will continue, no matter what the situation looks like now, and make it beautiful in His time, as we remain confident in Him.

SCA International's new look is coming soon. Please stay connected and support our mission for its next phase in ministry. We are in our 120th year of being involved in spreading the Good News of the Gospel in Canada. Through various programs, we continue to share God's love so that others can hear and experience Him in their lives. I would like to encourage you, don't put it off, get involved in promoting the Gospel in some way before Jesus comes. Revelation 22:12 says, "Look, I (Jesus) am coming soon! My (Jesus) reward is with me, and I (Jesus) will give to each person according to what they have done."

Our Summer Camp Sponsorship Program will conclude this month. Because of your generosity, many children are registered and getting ready to attend one week of camp this summer. Thanks to everyone who contributed to our Send-A-Child to Camp sponsorship program this year. You will hear their stories at the end of camp season.

Our year-round Intern Sponsorship Program, needs your support to continue sending interns to churches engaged in growth and expansion of the Gospel. Your donation will help us conclude this year commitment well and be prepared for the New Year.

Our Bible Distribution Program needs your involvement in helping us distribute the Gospel of John booklets. Upon request, we will send you the required number of booklets you need, whether for yourself, your group or your church. Please reach out to us for further information.

Our Tele-Prayer was pleasantly surprised by a new individual joining us for prayer today June 9th. You may call and be our next surprise for June 23rd. We would love the opportunity to pray for you. Call or email us today!

As you get ready to transition into the new season, whatever you do, have a blessed summer!

Regards,

Devika Ramroop
