

Questions for Excellent Wife in Training special Q & A Time

1. What process do you go through to submit your heart to truths (forgiveness, submission, service, etc.) despite feelings or resistance?
2. How do I need to think through and walk the situation where my husband is not a “fix it” man and where I need stuff done around the house and I am unable to do it? For example, I would like the garage to be more orderly but I am unable to do it and it doesn’t bother him.
3. How do I need to think through if my husband doesn’t appreciate the things I appreciate but I would like him to?
4. How do I balance serving in the church with my home responsibilities (wife and mother)?
5. How do you guard your heart from comparing yourself to other mothers in the church? For example, some kids can read earlier, some moms can do more, serve more, etc.
6. How do I encourage my husband to be in the Word more without coming across disrespectful?
7. How do I know when to use the rod? Do I do it every time my child disobeys?
