Sunday Service - March 15, 2020

Welcome

David Adair - Lead Pastor of Frontline Edmond

Call to Worship

Ben Hill - Lead Pastor of Frontline Shawnee

Bless the Lord, O My Soul Psalm 103:1-5

ALL: Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name!

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits, who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases,

ALL: Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name!

who redeems your life from the pit, who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy, who satisfies you with good so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

ALL: Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name!

Adoration: Psalm Reading

Charlie Hall - Pastor of Worship & Liturgy

I lift up my eyes to the hills. From where does my help come?

My help comes from the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

He will not let your foot be moved; he who keeps you will not slumber.

Behold, he who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.

The LORD is your keeper; the LORD is your shade on your right hand.

The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night.

The LORD will keep you from all evil; he will keep your life.

The LORD will keep your going out and your coming in from this time forth and forevermore. - Psalm 121:1-8

Confession & Assurance

Sean Evans - Pastor / Director of Operations of Frontline South

Confession - Together

Jesus, Your yoke is easy and your burden is light,
Yet we take a weight upon ourselves we were never meant to bear.
Father, you clothe us, feed us, protect us
yet we often don't trust that you will provide for us
You do not slumber or sleep, yet we stay awake with worry
In our pride we try to satisfy and carry our needs apart from you.
You tell us to seek first Your Kingdom
But we allow ourselves to be overrun and crushed by the cares of this world.
You tell us to trust you with our whole hearts and not lean on our own understanding,
Yet we have been formed more by our own anxieties than by Your promises.
Help us to cast our cares on you, knowing that you care for us.
Our restless hearts are not at rest until they find rest in you.

Confession - Leader

Your Father in heaven knows what you need before you ask,
He gives from the overflow of his inexhaustible mercy
His nearness is like a constant shadow at your side
He is eager to supply your every need according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus.
Jesus has made His Father our Father through his finished work, and gives us the gift of his Holy Spirit so that we may rest in Him without fear.
Do not be anxious like the world, for we are sons and daughters of a good Father.
The Lord keeps His people, he does not forget us or turn away from us

Together

From where does our help come?
Our help comes from the Lord.
Thanks be to God!

Intercession

Chad Kincer - Lead Pastor of Frontline Downtown

2 Chronicles 7:14

if my people who are called by my name humble themselves, and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and heal their land.

Sermon

Josh Kouri - Founding Pastor

Matthew 6:25-34

25 “Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? 26 Look at the birds of the air: they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? 27 And which of you by being anxious can add a single hour to his span of life?[a] 28 And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin, 29 yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. 30 But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? 31 Therefore do not be anxious, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’ 32 For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. 33 But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.

34 “Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.

Benediction

David Adair - Lead Pastor of Frontline Edmond

Ephesians 3:17-19

May Christ dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

If you are at a higher risk or become sick, contact us immediately so that we can pray for you, have you receive support from community, and provide pastoral care to you and your family. If you are well in body, lean into your communities and learn how you can serve your neighbors—maybe that means picking up and delivering groceries or medications to the most vulnerable among you. In addition, serving others through prayer and faith is something we can all do.
