The Church

1.1 NATURE

1. Universal: The Church consists of all those living, dead, and unborn, who have been or shall be reconciled to God through the redemptive work of Christ Jesus, a work of grace applied by the Holy Spirit and received through faith.
2. Local: The term “Church” is also used to designate a local congregation of people professing faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, and gathered and covenanted together for worship, fellowship, and ministry. While the Church is by nature an organism rather than an organization, organization is necessary to the development of the organism.

1.2 NAME

The name of this congregation, both as Church and as corporation, shall be “South Shore Baptist Church of Hingham, Massachusetts.”

1.3 PURPOSE

The purpose of this Church shall be to glorify the triune God in worship, study of His Word, fellowship, discipleship, and propagation of the Gospel of Christ at home and abroad.

1.4 GOVERNMENT

South Shore Baptist Church (SSBC) is congregationally governed and Elder led and shepherded. The Elders are tasked by the congregation with the responsibility of spiritual oversight and missional direction of the church while the congregation maintains final authority in the church. While celebrating our oneness in Christ with those congregations of all denominations and associations that faithfully proclaim the Gospel of Christ, this congregation shall preserve its freedom in Christ to elect its officers without interference from any ecclesiastical or political authority.

Chapter 2

Members

2.1 NATURE

Membership in the Church of Jesus Christ is membership in the Body of Christ. It means that one now belongs to God, is submissive to Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, animated by the power of the Holy Spirit, a possessor of great and precious promises, and has a high and holy calling.

2.2 QUALIFICATIONS

Those who desire to become members of SSBC shall:

1. Have participated in membership class or orientation;
2. Have been interviewed by an Elder in order to discern genuine faith in Jesus Christ and received the Elders' recommendation;
3. Submit to the Doctrinal Statement and affirm the Membership Covenant;
4. Have been baptized by immersion;
5. Give a public profession of personal faith in Jesus Christ; and
6. Have received the congregation's vote to join SSBC's membership.

2.3 ADMISSION

Applicants for membership shall, upon recommendation of the Elders, be presented to a regular or Special Members Meeting of SSBC, and shall be approved and accepted into membership by a two-thirds majority vote.

2.4 DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF MEMBERS

Members of SSBC shall put into practice the Membership Covenant.

2.5 STATUS

1. Active members are those who regularly participate in the worship, study, fellowship and outreach ministries of SSBC. Only active members of SSBC may vote and serve as its Elders or officers. The Elders shall review the membership roll annually and make any necessary recommendation for change in status. Members who have stopped attending SSBC for an extended period will have their membership status reviewed for placement on the inactive list. A two-thirds majority of those present and voting at an Annual Members Meeting shall be required in order to transfer a member to the inactive membership list.
2. Notification of a change in membership status will be in writing and will include wording that such member may apply to the Elders for reinstatement as an active member.
3. Transfer: Letters may be granted to members to enable them to transfer their membership to other Christian churches by application to the clerk, provided: The member is in good standing or, if inactive, is so described in the letter.

2.6 THE CATEGORIES OF MEMBERS

1. Regular Membership: Privileges include the right to vote at all Members Meetings and being eligible to serve as SSBC officers, teaching Sunday School and Children's Church, serving in youth ministries, worship, choir teams, overseeing committee members and members of its other ministry committees.

2. Inactive Membership and Termination of Membership: Those members who are not known to attend SSBC or participate in SSBC-related activities for more than one year, shall be deemed inactive. If after a second year of inactive membership the status has not changed, these inactive members will no longer be kept on the membership list and they will be encouraged to notify SSBC of their status. The Pastoral Staff will follow up each case individually and will notify SSBC at the next following Annual Members Meeting of those inactive members who have resigned from membership. Those who have not responded will be eligible for consideration by the Elders (with recommendation from the pastoral staff) to be dropped from membership. This action will be recommended by the Elders at the next Members Meeting and if so voted by members attending, the inactive members so voted will be notified in writing. Such persons who have been dropped from membership may apply to the Elders for reinstatement.

2.7 DISCIPLINE OF MEMBERS

The procedure outlined by Christ in Matthew 18:15-20 shall be encouraged in all cases when one member detects sin in the life of another member. In application, when sin is observed, a private meeting should be arranged to lovingly confront the member. If the member refuses to listen, then one or two witnesses should be taken along in an attempt to bring about an understanding of the sin, counsel, and restoration of the member. The process of restoration should be kept in as limited a circle as possible. All parties concerned shall express a spirit of gentleness and a desire to bear the burdens of the troubled member (Galatians 6:1 & 2).

If these attempts are unsuccessful, then the Elders should be informed concerning the sin. The Elders shall serve as the board of appeal on such issues, to investigate the issue in a fair and equitable fashion. The Elders will call the member(s) and other witnesses to a meeting, at which, if warranted, those under discipline may be encouraged to not participate in Lord's Supper. If a member fails to appear before the Elders, or heed the counsel of the Elders, the Elders may recommend disciplinary action to be taken against the offending member, and may recommend removal from church membership. (Matthew 18:17; I Corinthians 5:11-13; II Thessalonians 3:6-14). Any action involving removal from membership shall require a three-fourths majority of the members present and voting at a Members Meeting.

Chapter 3 Pastors

3.1 ELECTION

A Pastoral candidate shall be male. The election of any Pastor, unless otherwise provided, shall be for a term not specified, and shall require a vote of approval from those active members present and voting at a Members Meeting in the following minimum percentages: eighty percent (80%) majority for full-time Senior Pastor, three-fourths majority for all other full-time Pastors, and a simple majority for interim Pastors. A three-fourths majority of those active members present and voting at a regular or Special Members Meeting shall be required to establish a new pastoral position to serve SSBC body. Full-time Pastors, once elected, are members of SSBC.

3.2 ORDINATION AND INSTALLATION

If a Pastor is called prior to ordination, ordination shall be performed as set forth in the Manual of Methods and Procedures. Services of installation of a Pastor shall be performed as set forth in the Manual of Methods and Procedures.

3.3 DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF SENIOR PASTOR

The Senior Pastor's duties and responsibilities shall include the following:

1. To be the spiritual leader and overseer of the congregation.
2. To be an Elder with voting privileges and a member of all other committees and ministries, without voting privileges, except when appointed as an official member of a specific committee such as Chairman of a Pastoral Staff Nominating Committee.
3. To lead the members of the church in proclaiming the Word within the church and to the community, through evangelism and discipleship.
4. To oversee all congregational services by coordinating, planning, and evaluating all aspects of the worship ministry.
5. The Senior Pastor's other duties and responsibilities shall be as set forth in the Manual of Methods and Procedures.

3.4 THE PASTORAL STAFF

SSBC may retain a Pastoral Staff, consisting of various necessary positions. The Pastoral Staff shall be supervised by the Senior Pastor; their duties and responsibilities will be defined by the Senior Pastor with the approval of the Elders. Upon recommendation of the Senior Pastor, each member of the Pastoral Staff may be appointed by the Elders as a member of a council or committee, with voting privileges.

3.5 THE SSBC STAFF

SSBC Staff shall consist of administrative and support personal, as justified by the needs and finances of SSBC. SSBC staff shall be supervised by the Senior Pastor or his designated staff representative.

3.6 TERMINATION

Upon not less than two-month's notice, SSBC may, without cause or reason, end the employment of a Pastor. Likewise, a Pastor desiring to separate from SSBC, shall give a minimum of two-month's notice.

3.7 DISCIPLINE OF PASTORS AND ELDERS

When a member detects sin in the life of an Elder or Pastor, the procedure outlined in the first paragraph under 2.7 should be followed. If a resolution cannot be affected, then such accusations of sin against a Pastor or an Elder must be supported in writing by two or three witnesses and given to the Elders (I Timothy 5:19). Those members of the Elders who are unprejudiced and are not directly involved in the matter shall call a meeting and request in writing that the Pastor or Elder in question be present. The meeting shall be a hearing on the matter in the presence of witnesses, the Elder or Pastor in question, and all other parties involved, to verify the accusations.

After hearing all the evidence, the impartial and unprejudiced members of the Elders shall determine in a fair and equitable fashion whether action is warranted, with any Elder directly involved in the matter recusing himself from such process of determination. This should be accomplished in a reasonable time period. If any involved party fails to heed the recommendation of the Elders or to appear before the Elders, and thus the issue remains unresolved, the Elders may appoint an experienced mediator to review the matter and make an incontestable finding of facts. The Elders shall notify the congregation of the use of a mediator and the issues involved. If as a result of the mediator's findings in the matter the Elders believes that a recommendation for dismissal from church membership is appropriate, a three fourths majority of the membership present and voting at a Members Meeting shall be required.

Chapter 4 Overseeing Elders

4.1 QUALIFICATIONS

Elders shall be mature Christian men of exemplary life, and with the help of the Holy Spirit, reflecting love, holiness, and Christian leadership in relation to home, church, and community. They must possess the spiritual gifts necessary for their office as set forth in I Timothy 3:1-7 and their lives must meet the standards of Titus 1:7-9 and I Peter 5:1-5. A lay (volunteer or non-Pastor) Elder shall have been a member for at least three years before taking office.

4.2 ELECTION

The number of Elders serving shall be determined as set forth in the Manual of Methods and Procedures, with no fewer than four lay Elders. Lay Elders shall be elected for a three-year term, with one-third of the members elected each year. Vacancies in unexpired terms may be filled for the duration of the term. The election of an Elder shall require affirmative vote by at least a three-fourths majority of those present and voting at a Members Meeting. No Elder may serve for more than three consecutive years unless this be waived by a separate three-fourths majority of those present and voting. Such extensions shall be for a one-year term only.

4.3 DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

8. With assistance of the Nominating Committee, to elect replacements to officers and Ministry Committee, when such positions become vacant during the year.
9. To carry out such other duties as prescribed by the Constitution or by vote of the church.
10. Additional Elders duties and responsibilities shall be as set forth in the Manual of Methods and Procedures

4.4 ELDER EMERITUS

From time to time upon the recommendation of the Elders, SSBC may honor and elect selected former Elders who have given years of faithful service to the Church and to our Lord. These individuals shall have evidenced a willingness to remain active in shepherding and leading SSBC, though circumstances may prevent full participation. Elder Emeriti shall have all the rights and privileges of Elders, except that they may not vote at Elder meetings.

Deacons and Deaconesses shall be received as gifts of Christ to His Church, set apart for service.

5.2 ELECTION

Church members shall elect, at each Annual Members Meeting, a sufficient number of Deacons/Deaconesses to meet the needs of the caring ministries of SSBC. The usual term of office will be for three years. The election of a Deacon/Deaconess shall require at least a three-fourths majority of those present and voting at a Members Meeting of SSBC.

5.3 DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The office of Deacon/Deaconess as set forth in the Bible is one of sympathy, compassion, witness and service, after the example of our Lord Jesus Christ. The duties and responsibilities of the Diaconate shall be as follows:

6.2 MODERATOR OF THE CONGREGATION

11.1 SSBC DOCTRINAL STATEMENT

SSBC has established a Doctrinal Statement setting forth its doctrinal beliefs. The Doctrinal Statement is not intended to exhaust the extent of SSBC's beliefs affecting the business and conduct of SSBC, as the Bible—the inspired and infallible Word of God—speaks with the sole and final authority concerning God's truth, morality, and the proper conduct of mankind. The Elders are the final interpretive authority regarding the meaning and application of the Bible to the business, conduct, and governance of SSBC.

The Doctrinal Statement may not be amended except by a favorable vote of 90 percent of all members present and voting at two regularly called Members Meetings.

12.3 AMENDMENT OF THE MEMBERSHIP COVENANT

The Membership Covenant may not be amended except by a favorable vote of 90 percent of all members present and voting at two regularly called Members Meetings.
