ACTS 17:30

BRINGING THE GOOD NEWS
OF JESUS TO THE WORLD.

Welcome! During the next eleven weeks, our desire is to help you grow as a fully-devoted follower of Jesus Christ. This book is your guide to lead you into engaging God and others in a spiritual journey. Write in it, keep it with you, bring it to your group studies, and share all your discoveries with others.

Here are some of the helpful sections in this book:

2.....Introduction to All People. Everywhere.

3.....Rhythms of Faith

4.....Introduction to Acts

6.....SOMA

8-47.....Weeks 1-6: Notes, Devotions & Discussion

20.....Prayer & Praise

46.....Developing a Missional Posture

ALL PEOPLE. EVERYWHERE.

AN INTRODUCTION

It is so easy to go through the day without really thinking about anything or anyone outside of your own bubble. Your projects. Your goals. Your family and friends. That's where your mind is. That's where your heart is.

And we start to think that God's heart is only interested in our little bubble too.

But God's heart is far bigger than ours. His sights are for ALL PEOPLE. EVERYWHERE. Through the church, He was, and is now still, bringing the good news of Jesus to the world. He is tapping the shoulders of ordinary people and putting them on a mission for the gospel. Some to go to other cities and nations and some to change the lives of all kinds of people, right where they are at.

What about you? Will you join God in His mission? Are you ready to have your bubble expanded (or burst)?

Through this study we hope to:

- Align our hearts with God's heart.
- Expand our vision of who should hear the Good News.
- Actively pray for what God is doing in the world.
- Actively participate in what God is doing right here.
- Get excited about church planting and missional living.

We want to be the people of God who bring the good news of Jesus to the world – both near and far. May God lift up our heads so we see the opportunities we have to continue the mission started in Acts.

Getting the Most Out of this Study

RHYTHMS OF FAITH

We believe growth happens as you are involved in certain rhythms of the faith.

DAILY DEVOTIONS

We believe God wants to meet with you as you read His Word. There are 5 days of scripture reading for each week with a curated mix from Acts and Paul's letters. These readings and the insights you glean from them will form the foundation of your group discussions. Try to give yourself 20 minutes to complete the reading and SOMA each day.

WEEKLY SERMONS

We believe God has gifted us for the building up of the church body. Join us Sunday mornings in-person or online to deepen your understanding and application of the Book of Acts.

GROUP TIME

We believe God wants you to journey with others. These weekly gatherings will be a place of encouraging one another by sharing what God is teaching you in your devotional time, as well as a source for prayer and service.

PRAYER & PRAISE - Worship Night | Friday, September 24

We believe that we are to respond to God in praise and prayer. Prayer will be an important component of your daily reading and your group time. Additionally we're excited to invite everyone for a special night of praise oriented around God's attributes. (p. 20)

DEVELOP A MISSIONAL POSTURE

We believe we're all on a mission to make disciples. We've included a brief excerpt to help us think more clearly on how we can be missionaries right where we live. (p. 46)

AUTHOR & DATE

Acts is a sequel to the Gospel of Luke. Both were written by Luke, a physician who traveled with the apostle Paul. Acts ends with Paul under house arrest, awaiting trial before Caesar, c. A.D. 62. Many scholars assume Acts was written then because it does not record Paul's defense, release, and further gospel preaching.

MAIN THEME

The Holy Spirit empowers believers to declare the gospel among both Jews and Gentiles. In doing so they establish the church. The church is the fulfillment of God's promises from the beginning of time.

PURPOSE

Luke's purpose for writing his Gospel (see Luke 1:3–4) applies to Acts as well: to give an "orderly" account of the early church after Christ's resurrection. Dedicating the two-volume work to Theophilus, Luke wanted him to have "certainty" about what he had been taught.

KEY THEMES

Acts tells of the witness of the early church to the truth of the gospel—a theme first introduced in 1:8:

- The witness is worldwide—Judea, Samaria, the "end of the earth" (1:8).
- The witness includes all kinds of people (chs. 2–5; 10:1–11:18; 14:8–18; 16:11–15, 25–34; 17:22–31).
- God guides the church's witness (4:5–22; 23:12–22; 24:1–23; 27:21–26).
- Faithful witnesses must be prepared to suffer and even die because of their testimony to Christ (5:41–42; 7:54–60).
- The Holy Spirit empowers the witness (1:8; 2:1–13; 8:17; 13:2–12; 19:6).
- Effective witness demands unity in the church (2:42–47; 4:32–37; 5:12–14).
- Jesus' resurrection is a key part of the witness (1:22; 2:22–36; 17:30–31).
- Acceptance of the message depends both on human response and on God's sovereign will (2:47; 11:18; 13:48).
- The witness to the gospel calls for a response (26:27–29). It requires repenting of one's sins in the name of Christ. This brings forgiveness of sins (e.g., 2:38).
- Witnesses must always maintain integrity before the world (18:12–15; 23:29; 25:18; 26:31–32).
- Christian witnesses continue the ministry that Christ "began" (1:1).
- Faithful witness can bring great results (4:4; 13:48–49; 17:4; 28:30–31).

OUTLINE

- I. Preparation for Witness (1:1–2:13)
- II. The Witness in Jerusalem (2:14–5:42)
- III. The Witness beyond Jerusalem (6:1–12:25)

Current Series:

- IV. The Witness in Cyprus and Southern Galatia (13:1–14:28)
- V. The Jerusalem Council (15:1–35)
- VI. The Witness in Greece (15:36–18:22)
- VII. The Witness in Ephesus (18:23–21:16)
- VIII. The Arrest in Jerusalem (21:17–23:35)
- IX. The Witness in Caesarea (24:1–26:32)
- X. The Witness in Rome (27:1–28:31)

THE SETTING OF ACTS

c. A.D. 30–60

The book of Acts records the spread of the gospel from Jerusalem to Rome, thus fulfilling the risen Christ's words to his apostles in Acts 1:8.

SOMA

BIBLE STUDY METHOD

SOMA* is an easy-to-use Bible study method for jumping into a passage and mining its riches. This method can be repeated with any passage of the Bible and used for personal Bible reading, one-on-one bible study, and small group bible study. Our hope and prayer is that our church body could learn this method over time and have confidence in reading the Bible on their own, as well as with others.

Fun fact: 'Soma' is the Greek word for 'body,' which is really what this is all about: building up the body of Christ, the church.*

S Soak: Read the passage slowly asking the Holy Spirit to open it to you. We want to soak in it, marinate, steep in it, asking the Spirit to guide us into the scriptures and notice its surroundings.

We want to ask questions about the context of the passage in these areas:

- Genre: What kind of writing is this? Narrative? Poem? Letter?
- Circumstances: Who is writing this? To whom? Are there any clues as to why? Maybe the Israelites are worshipping idols again. Maybe Paul is in prison again. Maybe the Corinthians messed up again.
- Connection to the rest of the story: Where does this passage fit in to the rest of the book? What has happened so far?

O Observe: Once we've soaked in passage, we want to make sure we are able to see all that is really there. Not interpreting, but taking note of what is present.

We want to ask observation questions of the text:

- What are the key words? Are there any words or ideas that are repeated?
- What do you learn about the main characters? How are they described by the author?
- Is time or place significant in this passage?
- Is there a conflict?
- Are there any surprises?
- Do you have any questions from the passage? Is there anything difficult to understand or something you'd like to ask the author?

M Meaning: Now that we've gotten familiar with the passage, knowing what is there, we want to get at its meaning. The meaning of the passage doesn't come from us, but from the author. Instead of asking questions like: "What does this passage mean to me?", we want to ask questions like: "What is the author trying to say?"

Here are some questions to help arrive at the meaning:

- What is the main point of the passage? What is the author really trying to get across?
- How could you sum up the meaning of this passage in your own words?
- What does this passage reveal about who Jesus is, and what he came into the world to do?
- How does the coming and work of Jesus on the cross change how we understand this passage? (specifically for Old Testament)

For reading Acts, you main want to also ask:

- How does this fulfill God's promises and plans for the world?
- Is this section descriptive of the church or prescriptive for the church?

A Apply: After trying to wrap our heads around the meaning of the passage, we want to seek to apply it to our lives. The goal of reading the Bible is transformation. We want to let the Word of God grow deep in us so that we can bear much fruit.

A helpful way to think about application is to ask questions about how it transforms our head (knowledge and beliefs), our heart (desires and attitudes), and our hands (actions and practices).

- Head: How does this passage challenge or confirm your beliefs?
- Heart: How does this passage challenge your desires and attitudes? Is there something you need to change?
- Hands: What does this passage tell us to go and do with our energy, time, and resources?
- Is there any response to this passage you feel that the Spirit is impressing upon you?

PRAYER: Finish your time in God's Word by using this passage as the subject of your prayer. Take time to thank God for what was learned and express your desire for His continued work of transformation in your life.

WEEK 01

STORIES OF GOD

Have one member of your group share a story of God’s work in their life. This could be a testimony of how they came to faith, or another point in their life when God changed them in some way.

INTRO QUESTION

What was something “new” that you tried even though you weren’t sure how it was going to work out? Why did you do it?

OPEN SHARING (use these questions to look back at your O, M & As of your devotions)

How did God get your attention this week in your devotional reading?

Was there any specific way you wanted to apply your reading into your life?

FINAL QUESTIONS

How is God still “setting apart” people for special work?

What need is there for the gospel to still go out?

Who can you be praying for over the next 10 weeks that God would give you the opportunity to share with them and that they would be open to receiving this good news of Jesus?

PRAYER

Each week we will highlight one of South Shores Church’s missionaries. Please take time to pray for them.

Prayer & Praise

INTRODUCTION

Have you ever had someone talk about a friend as if you already knew them? You hear their name over and over, but you don't really know the person, their character or what they are really like because you haven't met them. All you know is a name.

Sometimes I wonder if the same thing happens with the name "God." We use "God" so much that we've forgotten who God really is and we've replaced the person with merely a word. We long to encounter Him, but we rarely stop to consider who He is: who He has revealed and shown Himself to be.

A.W. Tozer famously wrote, "What comes into our minds when we think about God is the most important thing about us." The idea is that not only do we need to know God for who He is, but it determines who we are too.

What comes into your mind when you think of God?

Are there any false or incomplete images of God that you need to rid yourself of?

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Take time this week to meditate on who God says He is and shows himself to be with the following scriptures.

Psalms 86

1 John 3:1-3

Deuteronomy 4:24-31

1 John 4:6-7

Romans 5:6-8

2. What characteristics stand out? What actions speak to you?

3. Join your church family in a special worship night focused God's attributes. Singing helps increase our faith; encouraging one another to believe what we sing.

Developing a Missional Posture in Your Church

Adapted from Planting Missional Churches

by Ed Stetzer & Daniel Im

1. Understand God's mission and the gospel.

It's important to understand how the central figure of Scripture, Jesus, fits within the mission of God. If you fail to understand the connection between the good news of Jesus Christ and the mission of God, being effectively missional will be impossible. By having a firm grasp on God's mission and gospel, you're likely to have a loose grip on the obstacles and idols that prevent you and your church from being missional.

2. Identify obstacles and idols.

As Paul walked around the city of Athens (Acts 17), he observed how religious the Athenians were by the idols they worshipped. These cultural idols, and especially the one to "an unknown god," became bridges by which Paul communicated the gospel and confronted their idol worship. By understanding the obstacles and idols of the culture, missional churches are able to build bridges to communicate the gospel message and confront those obstacles and idols.

3. Contextualize and communicate.

We need to understand people in order to reach them. Acts indicates that Paul approached Jews and Gentiles differently. With the Jews, Paul reasoned about the saving role of the Messiah and his resurrection (Acts 17:1-4). With the Gentiles, Paul's reasoning was more foundational—addressing issues of resurrection, morality, and judgment (Acts 17:16-34). He engaged them based on where they were and what they knew.

"Missional means living and acting like a missionary without ever leaving your city." -- Stetzer & Im (p.21)

4. Equip people for everyday mission.

Brennan Manning once quipped, and dc Talk probably made famous: “The greatest single cause of atheism in the world today is Christians who acknowledge Jesus with their lips and walk out the door and deny Him by their lifestyle. That is what an unbelieving world simply finds unbelievable.” Missional churches equip their people to live every area of their lives under the rule and reign of King Jesus. That means every sector and arena of their lives—spiritual, mental, emotional, social, marital, familial, vocational, economical, and cultural realms—operate under the redeeming power of the gospel through the empowerment of the Spirit to reflect the glory of King Jesus.

5. Practice unity.

Jesus, in his high priestly prayer, asked the Father, “I pray not only for these, but also for those who believe in Me through their message. May they all be one, as You, Father, are in Me and I am in You. May they also be one in Us, so the world may believe You sent Me” (John 17:20-21). The unity a church possesses must not only be practiced within a local body, but it must also extend to other local bodies. Cooperating and partnering with Christians outside your denominational tradition is a good thing—a Christ-honoring thing. As Augustin is most often quote to have said, “In essentials, unity; in nonessentials, liberty; in all things, charity.”

Planting Missional Churches

Your Guide to Starting Churches that Multiply

Ed Stetzer & Daniel Im

“Ed Stetzer’s volume on planting missional churches has been perhaps the best single volume on the subject. Now that he has updated it thoroughly, it is even more important to have if you are involved in church planting at any level, or even if you want your local church to be more outwardly focused. I recommend it.”
