Passion for God. Compassion for Neighbor.

At CrossWinds, we celebrate God's love for us through Jesus. We will spend our lives plumbing the depths of Christ's love only to comprehend a fraction of God's goodness.

God has not just called us to enjoy His generous love. He also calls us to extend the same kind of generous love He has for us to others. God's plan is for the world to taste His love for them through us. At CrossWinds, we want to be a church that focuses on extending this love by excelling in generous living in all areas of our life.

To help us live a life of Christ-exalting generosity, I am excited to introduce the CrossWinds Legacy Foundation. The Foundation is a tool that provides funding structures to help CrossWinds achieve our commitment to the multiplication of gospel-centered churches, growing our staff, developing leadership and other large steps of our vision. It also offers a fund for significant benevolent needs plus an additional fund for mission opportunities to spread the gospel around the world.

I invite you to learn more about the CrossWinds vision, generous living and the role of the Legacy Foundation in each of our lives.

CrossWinds Church Senior Pastor, Dr. Kurt Trucksess

GENEROUS LIVING

What does it mean for you to lead a generous life? At CrossWinds, we believe there are three key components to generous living:

Time

God calls us to be generous with our time, whether serving as a youth volunteer, usher or with those in need outside the church walls. For many, the first step toward generosity with your time is to create margin in your schedule in order to give to others.

Heart

Being generous with your time is costly; being generous with your heart is far more costly. When we are generous with our hearts—whether it is in church ministry or among the vulnerable of our community—we give part of ourselves. A generous heart has a genuine interest in the needs of others and compassion to meet the needs of those around us.

Finances

Jesus once declared, “Where your heart is, there your treasure will be also.” Joyful sharing of our finances is a sign of a generous heart. How is God calling me to be generous with my finances? Supporting missionaries? The church’s vision? Local ministries?

“But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.” - Jeremiah 29:7 (ESV)

Todd and Alexis McQuown Family

"CrossWinds has been part of our story for over 20 years. It is where we met as a couple, where we were married, and where we dedicated our children. There's no place we would rather call our church home."

Luke and Edel Summers Family

"We want to say thank you to our church community for being there for us. It is great to be part of this church and it is exciting to see Ellie grow up with other kids who love Jesus and to have a great body of Christ around her. "

Wade and Tasha Broom Family

"Our main priorities were to find a church home that taught directly from Scripture, upheld that teaching, and also would provide a strong Christian community in which to raise our children. We found all of these at CrossWinds Church."

Jim and Dale Gamache Family

"CrossWinds came alongside us in many ways when we adopted our two sons. God has used Awana, CrossWinds Kids, Youth Group, support from our youth pastor and many more encounters to bring them both into a relationship with Jesus."

REGION

A healthy church planting healthy churches

- Launching CrossWinds Church Spencer
- Prayer for humble hearts
- Partnering with local missions organizations to serve the spiritual needs in our region
- Generous living by sacrificing time, work and finances

BEYOND

A church responding to God's call to reach the lost in other cultures

- Short-term missions trips to places such as New Orleans, Ukraine and Haiti
- Prayer to the Lord of the Harvest to call our people to serve (Luke 10:2)
- Sacrificial missions giving
- Awareness of the world coming to us by receiving cross-cultural communities, students and refugees

HOW DO WE REACH OUR REGION?

With nearly 70,000 people living in the CrossWinds footprint, only about 15 percent of them believe the gospel. That means there are almost 60,000 of our neighbors, co-workers and family members whose lives remain untouched by Jesus.

Reaching our region means living compassionate lives marked by generosity toward our church family, community and the lost that God calls us to reach around the world and in our area. One of the most effective ways of reaching the 60,000 within our footprint is through planting new campuses in new communities. Planting new campuses is a commitment of our time, heart and finances to answering the call God has given to us.
