Name Tags Are Missional!

One of the ways we can all be mission minded is to wear name tags! Wearing name tags helps everyone, newcomers and those who have been around to feel more comfortable starting conversations and engaging relationships. So please, as you come in, write your name on a name tag....even if it's just for the sake of the other. It's one of the ways we love our neighbors as our ourselves (Matthew 22:39).

Prayer of Preparation for Worship: Do you come to worship with expectation that God will speak to you?

If you're here today enduring a difficult situation or circumstance this morning, ask Jesus to reveal His answers to you during worship. This prayer is a great way to start: Dear Lord, as I anticipate this worship service, prepare my heart now! Remove distractions, soften my heart and create in me a hunger for your Word.

Today I especially ask you to help solve the following burden I came in with.....Finally Lord, help me come ready to give of my heart, not just receive. Make me a blessing to others in worship today.

Today's Sermon

Title: The Art of Downshifting

Preacher: The Rector

One of the things I loved about having a car with a manual transmission was the art of down shifting, especially going up or coming down from a high mountain. Today, we are downshifting by going up to the Mount of Transfiguration. We will join Peter, James and John there, and with them rediscover the power of Jesus to transform our lives!

Service adapted from the Anglican Church of North America Prayer Book beginning on page 105.
Welcome families! No cry or laugh is too loud!

Pre Song

Shine Jesus Shine

1. *Lord, the light of Your love is shining,
In the midst of the darkness shining;
Jesus, Light of the World, shine upon us,
Set us free by the truth You now bring us;
Shine on me, shine on me.*

Refrain: *Shine, Jesus, shine,
Fill this land with the Father's glory;
Blaze, Spirit blaze; set our hearts on fire;
Flow, river, flow,
Flood the nations with grace and mercy;
Send forth Your Word, Lord, and let there be light.*

2. *Lord, I come to Your awesome presence,
From the shadows into Your radiance;
By the blood I may enter Your brightness;
Search me, try me, consume all my darkness;
Shine on me, shine on me.*

Refrain

3. *As we gaze on Your kingly brightness,
So our faces display Your likeness,
Ever changing from glory to glory;
Mirrored here, may our lives tell Your story;
Shine on me, shine on me.*

Refrain

Welcome

Officiant I will make you as a light for the nations,

Isaiah 49:6

People That my salvation may reach to the end of the earth.

The Collect for Purity

All *Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.*

Prayer for our Children

All *Almighty God, heavenly Father, you have blessed our congregation with the joy and care of children. Give us courage, patience, and wisdom as we bring them up in the faith that they might never know a day apart from you, through Jesus Christ
our Lord. Amen.*

The Pre-Song provides time and space to prepare the heart for worship. Please utilize this time for meditation, reflection, and prayer. The music should help you ponder the character and various attributes of God and His plan for the world. If any piece is hymn-based or chorale-based, a selection from the lyrics is provided to aid in prayer or reflection.

At this time please silence all cell phones and beepers.

It is customary upon entering to begin with a few moments of private prayer, usually kneeling.

The liturgy begins with the Acclamation, which is an "eager expression" of praise.

In this Prayer for Purity, we ask God to cleanse our hearts and minds of anything that comes between Him and us, anything that would impede our worship of him. We offer to Him our whole selves that we might decrease and that He might increase, to the glory of Jesus Christ.

O-penthe eyes of my heart, Lord, o-penthe eyes of my heart,
 I want to see You, I want to see You;
 O-penthe eyes of my heart, Lord, o-penthe eyes of my heart,
 I want to see You, I want to see You; (Repeat 1st time)

Refrain
 To see You high and lift - ed up, shin-ing in the light of Your glo - ry; Pour out Your power and love as we sing, "Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly." (1st time, to the beginning) (2nd time, going on)

Ending
 Ho - ly,
 ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, I want to see You.

Officiant The Lord be with you.
 All And with your spirit.
 Officiant Let us pray.

The Scriptures teach that much of our spiritual renewal comes from hearing the Word of God, which cleanses our minds and purifies our hearts.

The Prayers of the People: This is a time during our service to pray for some people by name, who have requested prayers from us. We are limiting those mentioned "out loud" to the five most recent requests from church members and their families, but please note the following:
More than 60 Prayer Ministers at St. Michael's Church are praying for more than 50 people by name each day. Just because we have not said their name does not mean they are not being prayed for faithfully and daily. Also, please understand that we don't put anyone on any prayer list without their permission. To place someone on our prayer list, please call the church.

The Collect of the Day

O God, who before the passion of your only-begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Sermon

The Art of Downshifting
The Rector

Reflective Music

Officiant Let us pray for the Church and for the world, praying, "hear our prayer."

The Prayers of the People, kneeling

Leader Heavenly Father, thank you for the rhythm of the Christian life. Prepare us now to downshift by making that journey up the mountain to lent. On that Mountaintop, help us slow down and marinate in your glory, and in the process refuel our lives, that we would live and minister out of the overflow of the Holy Spirit. Lord, in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Leader We pray for God's people throughout the world, especially for those in the Middle East; for spiritual renewal, revival, and awakening; for the Anglican Church in North America, for Chip, our Bishop, and for the clergy, vestry, staff, and congregation of St. Michael's Church.

Lord in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Leader For our nation, for those in authority, and for all in public service, especially Donald, our President, Henry, our Governor, and William, our Mayor, and for all who serve in law enforcement, as well as all first responders, firefighters and our armed forces, that we would be one nation under God.

Lord, in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Leader For all the blessings of this life, especially for Walk for Water and Water Mission. Lord, in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Leader For all those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, especially for Jenny Dickinson, Jim Evans, and Susan Herrmann. We, also, pray for all who have departed this life in the certain hope of the resurrection.

Lord, in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Leader Heavenly Father, grant these our prayers for the sake of Jesus Christ, our only Mediator and Advocate, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People Amen.

The Confession, kneeling

Officiant Let us humbly confess our sins to Almighty God.

(Silence to reflect on those you have hurt and on those who have hurt you.)

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Absolution

Officiant Almighty God our heavenly Father, who in his great mercy has promised forgiveness of sins to all those who sincerely repent and with true faith turn to him, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Comfortable Words

Hear the Word of God to all who truly turn to him.

Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Matthew 11:28

God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.

John 3:16

The Peace, standing

Officiant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And with your spirit.

Then the Ministers and People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Mission Partner Report: Water Mission

David and Lisa Floyd

Officiant Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, an offering and sacrifice to God.

In the Confession of Sin and Absolution, our sins, both individual and corporate are confessed, and we are reassured of God's complete forgiveness through Jesus Christ. We begin with a cleansing admission and confession of sin followed by an authoritative pronouncement of God's forgiveness in Christ Jesus, which allow us to move forward in the power of forgiveness.

The Significance of the Comfortable Words:

The "Comfortable Words" were put into the Book of Common Prayer by Anglican Archbishop Thomas Cranmer in the 16th century. They are a cherished part of the Anglican liturgy, read after the confession to reassure believers of God's forgiveness and mercy, grounding the priest's absolution in the authority of Scripture.

The Peace is a particularly good time to welcome visitors and newcomers. Please take a moment to extend God's peace to those around you. That peace, which the world cannot give, comes only through the forgiving of Jesus Christ. This peace is not rooted in our circumstances but in the presence, promise, and power of God and Christ's redeeming work.

Holy Communion

(ACNA Prayer Book, beginning p. 132)

Officiant

The Lord be with you.

People

And with your spirit.

Officiant

Lift up your hearts.

People

We lift them up to the Lord.

Officiant

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Officiant

It is right, our duty and our joy, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

The Doxology swells up out of our gratitude to God for his goodness to us. The word “doxology” literally means “glory saying,” and so in this song we give God glory for his triune nature and as the author of all blessings.

Holy Communion, the Supper of the Lord, is not only a sign of the love that Christians ought to have among themselves for each other but is especially a sacrament of our redemption by Christ’s death.

Because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Arch angels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The Sanctus

Snow

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly Lord, God of power and might, hea-ven and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san-na in the high-est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the Name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

Prayer of Consecration, kneeling

Celebrant

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and when we had sinned against you and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent your only Son Jesus Christ into the world for our salvation. By the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary he became flesh and dwelt among us. In obedience to your will, he stretched out his arms upon the Cross and offered himself once for all, that by his suffering and death we might be saved. By his resurrection he broke the bonds of death, trampling Hell and Satan under his feet. As our great high priest, he ascended to your right hand in glory, that we might come with confidence before the throne of grace.

On the night that he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat; this is my Body, which is given for you: Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise, after supper, Jesus took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the forgiveness of sins: Whenever you drink it, do this in remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Celebrant

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, and we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Word and Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ. Sanctify us also, that we may worthily receive this holy Sacrament, and be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us and we in him. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us with all your saints into the joy of your heavenly kingdom, where we shall see our Lord face to face.

The Sanctus is the song of the seraphim contained in the great vision that the prophet Isaiah experienced while worshiping in the Temple in Jerusalem. This vision is recorded in the 6th chapter of Isaiah. It is inspired by Isaiah's vision of the heavenly court "Holy, holy, holy" acknowledging transcendence of God.

The Lord's Prayer, so called because Jesus gave this prayer to His disciples as an example of how to pray, has been a part of Eucharistic liturgies since year 400 A.D. The link between our daily bread and the spiritual food we receive in the Eucharist is very ancient. In the context of the liturgy, the words "give us this day our daily bread" refer both to our daily needs as well as the "bread of Heaven" which we receive in the Eucharist.

During Communion: When we gather together, we remember the presence of Jesus. By repeating the words and actions of Jesus' last meal with His disciples, we join the story and make it our own. We don't just watch the drama or listen to it unfold, we enter into the story as we, too, take the bread and wine and eat and drink.

Those at the rail will receive the bread in their hands, eat the bread, and then guide the chalice to their lips for a sip of the wine.

* Gluten Free Wafers are Available: If you need a gluten free wafer, please indicate this at the altar rail by placing your hand over your heart.

CENTER AISLES are second, starting from the back. Please return to your seat using the side aisles.

Those seated in the center aisles from the READER'S PEW forward (pew # 42-39, including front crossing aisle pews) may return to their seats using the center aisle.

Those seated upstairs will need to come downstairs to receive communion at the rail.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant And now as our Saviour Jesus Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray:

The Lord's Prayer

*Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.*

The Breaking of Bread

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the people of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The Invitation

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive communion. Ushers will guide you to the rail. At the rail, please kneel if able. Receive the wafer in your hands and consume it. To drink from the chalice, gently guide the base; to intinct, keep the wafer in your hands and the server will dip it for you. Gluten-free wafers are available—please let us know. If you prefer not to receive, come forward with arms crossed for a blessing. If you are not baptized, our clergy would be glad to speak with you after the service.

ORDER FOR RECEIVING COMMUNION

General: Two lines in center aisle, returning to pews via side aisles

SIDE AISLES begin first, walking to the back and using the back Crossing Aisle to access the center aisle. Please return to your seat using the side aisles.

We stand to mark the fact that because we have received the body and blood of Jesus, we are changed people. We began on our knees and end standing through his body and blood.

As the celebration ends, we are charged to “go forth.” The word “Eucharist” is from the Greek word “Eucharistia” which means “Thanksgiving.” Just as we would never leave a gourmet meal prepared by a close friend without saying thank you, it is appropriate to remain in the worship service, until the end to say thank you to God after receiving the glorious feast of the bread of heaven and the cup of our salvation.

We have been blessed by being here. Now, at the end of the service, we are reminded that God takes loving delight in blessing us abundantly. We leave in peace, forgiven, fed, and sent out with a purpose to make Christ known in the world.

Song

Post Communion Prayer, standing

All

Heavenly Father, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the body of your Son and heirs of your eternal Kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing

Officiant

The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.
