Name Tags Are Missional!

One of the ways we can all be mission minded is to wear name tags! Wearing name tags helps everyone, newcomers and those who have been around to feel more comfortable starting conversations and engaging relationships. So please, as you come in, write your name on a name tag...even if it's just for the sake of the other. It's one of the ways we love our neighbors as our ourselves (Matthew 22:39).

Prayer of Preparation for Worship: Do you come to worship with expectation that God will speak to you?

If you're here today enduring a difficult situation or circumstance this morning, ask Jesus to reveal His answers to you during worship. This prayer is a great way to start: Dear Lord, as I anticipate this worship service, prepare my heart now! Remove distractions, soften my heart and create in me a hunger for your Word.

Today I especially ask you to help solve the following burden I came in with.....Finally Lord, help me come ready to give of my heart, not just receive. Make me a blessing to others in worship today.

Today's Sermon

Title: Abiding in the Vine

Preacher: The Rev. Aaron Schnupp

When my family and I moved into our house, one of the first things we did with the yard was to prune the bushes that are in front of our house. While they may have looked big and healthy, they needed to be cut down in order to ensure their long-term health. This morning, Jesus will tell us that he is the vine, we are the branches, and that the Father prunes every branch that bears fruit. By looking at John 15 together, we will see what this metaphor tells us about our God and our relationship to him.

Service adapted from the Anglican Church of North America Prayer Book beginning on page 105.

The Processional, standing

Welcome

Officiant Alleluia! Christ is risen!

People The Lord is risen indeed! Alleluia!

The Collect for Purity

All Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Officiant The Lord be with you.

People And with your spirit.

Officiant Let us pray.

The Collect of the Day

O God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as surpass our understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards you, that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lesson: Isaiah 41:17-20, seated

Bible, p. 601

After the reading, the Reader says

The Word of the Lord.

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John 15:1-11

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

After the Gospel, the Reader says

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ!

Sermon

Abiding in the Vine

The Rev. Aaron Schnupp

Nicene Creed, together, standing

*We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, visible and invisible.*

*We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.*

At this time please silence all cell phones and beepers.

It is customary upon entering to begin with a few moments of private prayer, usually kneeling.

The liturgy begins with the Acclamation, which is an "eager expression" of praise.

In this Prayer for Purity, we ask God to cleanse our hearts and minds of anything that comes between Him and us, anything that would impede our worship of him. We offer to Him our whole selves that we might decrease and that He might increase, to the glory of Jesus Christ.

The Scriptures teach that much of our spiritual renewal comes from hearing the Word of God, which cleanses our minds and purifies our hearts.

The word Gospel comes from an old German word which means "Good News," which is that God's kingdom is available to everyone. We stand for the Gospel reading to show the importance we place on Jesus' words and actions.

The Nicene Creed is a statement of what the Christian community believes is true about God. It was born of rigorous intellectual debate in the fourth century, culminating in councils of whole church at Nicaea in 325 and at Constantinople in 381. The word creed comes from the Latin word for "I believe."

Catholic simply means universal, not necessarily the Roman Catholic Church.

The Prayers of the People: This is a time when we pray for some people by name, who have requested prayers from us. We are limiting those mentioned "out loud" to the most recent requests from church members and their families, but please note the following:

More than 60 Prayer Ministers at St. Michael's Church are praying for more than 40 people by name each day. Just because we have not said their name does not mean they are not being prayed for faithfully and daily. Also, please understand that we don't put anyone on any prayer list without their permission.

To place someone on our prayer list, please call the church. We also offer prayer teams who can come to you, by appointment, to offer in depth prayer for your needs. We would love for you to become one of our Prayer Ministers, who receive weekly updates on the needs of those on our list and pray for these needs daily.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Officiant Let us pray for the Church and for the world, praying, "hear our prayer."

Prayers of the People, kneeling

Leader Heavenly Father, we thank you that you have made us branches of your vine. By the power of your Holy Spirit, grant us the grace to abide in Christ all the days of our lives, so that we may bear fruit that brings you glory. Lord, in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Leader For the peace of the whole world, specifically for war torn Iran and the Middle East. We pray for a swift end to this war and for peace to reign. We also pray for all our military service members and their families feeling helpless at home. Lord, in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Leader For the Anglican Church in North America, and Chip, our Bishop, and for all the people of our Diocese, including the clergy, staff, vestry and congregation of St. Michael's Church. Lord, in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Leader For all those who proclaim the Gospel at home and abroad; especially all mothers, mother figures and for all who teach and disciple others, especially for our Sunday School teachers and small group leaders. Lord, in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Leader For our brothers and sisters in Christ who are persecuted for their faith. Lord, in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Leader For our nation, for those in authority, and for all in public service, especially Donald, our President, Henry, our Governor, and William, our Mayor, and for all who serve in law enforcement, as well as all first responders, firefighters and our armed forces, that we would be one nation under God. Lord, in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Leader For all those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, especially for Jim Evans, George Thompson, Allison Lawrence, Jan Lipov, Jennifer Hartig, Charlie Ruwe and Jennie Hull. We, also, pray for all who have departed this life in the certain hope of the resurrection, especially for James Kristian Falk, in whose memory the altar flowers have been given.

Lord, in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Leader Heavenly Father, grant these our prayers for the sake of Jesus Christ, our only Mediator and Advocate, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People Amen.

The Confession, kneeling

Officiant Let us humbly confess our sins to Almighty God.
(Silence to reflect on those you have hurt and on those who have hurt you.)

People Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Absolution

Officiant Almighty God our heavenly Father, who in his great mercy has promised forgiveness of sins to all those who sincerely repent and with true faith turn to him, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace, standing

Officiant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And with your spirit.

Then the Ministers and People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Officiant Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, an offering and sacrifice to God.

Offertory

Reflective Offertory Music

Officiant All things come from thee, O Lord

People And of thine own have we given thee

In the Confession of Sin and Absolution, our sins, both individual and corporate are confessed, and we are reassured of God's complete forgiveness through Jesus Christ. We begin with a cleansing admission and confession of sin followed by an authoritative pronouncement of God's forgiveness in Christ Jesus, which allow us to move forward in the power of forgiveness.

The Peace is a particularly good time to welcome visitors and newcomers. Please take a moment to extend God's peace to those around you. That peace, which the world cannot give, comes only through the forgiving of Jesus Christ. This peace is not rooted in our circumstances but in the presence, promise, and power of God and Christ's redeeming work.

Link to Venmo!

The Holy Communion, the Supper of the Lord, is not only a sign of the love that Christians ought to have among themselves for each other but is especially a sacrament of our redemption by Christ's death.

The Sanctus is the song of the seraphim contained in the great vision that the prophet Isaiah experienced while worshiping in the Temple in Jerusalem. This vision is recorded in the 6th chapter of Isaiah. It is inspired by Isaiah's vision of the heavenly court "Holy, holy, holy" acknowledging transcendence of God.

The Eucharistic Prayer is centered in the atoning death of Jesus Christ upon the cross. His suffering there in our place is the only sufficient ground or basis for our standing before God. Our joy in the present and our hope for the future all flow from the reality of God's redeeming work in the historic event of the crucifixion.

Holy Communion

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And with your spirit.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them up to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, our duty and our joy, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was offered for us, and has taken away the sin of the world; who by his death has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever say this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord,
Hosanna in the highest.

Prayer of Consecration, kneeling

Celebrant Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and when we had sinned against you and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent your only Son Jesus Christ into the world for our salvation. By the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary he became flesh and dwelt among us. In obedience to your will, he stretched out his arms upon the Cross and offered himself once for all, that by his suffering and death we might be saved. By his resurrection he broke the bonds of death, trampling Hell and Satan under his feet. As our great high priest, he ascended to your right hand in glory, that we might come with confidence before the throne of grace.

On the night that he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat; this is my Body, which is given for you: Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise, after supper, Jesus took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the forgiveness of sins: Whenever you drink it, do this in remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, and we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Word and Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ. Sanctify us also, that we may worthily receive this holy Sacrament, and be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us and we in him. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us with all your saints into the joy of your heavenly kingdom, where we shall see our Lord face to face.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant And now as our Savior Jesus Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray:

The Lord's Prayer

*Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen*

Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the people of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The Invitation

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive communion. Ushers will guide you to the rail. At the rail, please kneel if able. Receive the wafer in your hands and consume it. To drink from the chalice, gently guide the base; to intinct, keep the wafer in your hands and the server will dip it for you. Gluten-free wafers are available—please let us know. If you prefer not to receive, come forward with arms crossed for a blessing. If you are not baptized, our clergy would be glad to speak with you after the service.

Post Communion Prayer, standing

All Heavenly Father, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal Kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer, so called because Jesus gave this prayer to His disciples as an example of how to pray, has been a part of Eucharistic liturgies since year 400 A.D. The link between our daily bread and the spiritual food we receive in the Eucharist is very ancient. In the context of the liturgy, the words "give us this day our daily bread" refer both to our daily needs as well as the "bread of Heaven" which we receive in the Eucharist.

During Communion:

When we gather together, we remember the presence of Jesus. By repeating the words and actions of Jesus' last meal with His disciples, we join the story and make it our own. We don't just watch the drama or listen to it unfold, we enter into the story as we, too, take the bread and wine and eat and drink.

 Gluten Free Wafers are

Available: If you need a gluten free wafer, please indicate this at the altar rail by placing your hand over your hear

As the celebration ends, we are charged to "go forth." The word "Eucharist" is from the Greek word "Eucharistia" which means "Thanksgiving." Just as we would never leave a gourmet meal prepared by a close friend without saying thank you, it is appropriate to remain in the worship service until the end to say thank you to God after receiving the glorious feast of the bread of heaven and the cup of our salvation.

We have been blessed by being here. Now, at the end of the service, we are reminded that God takes loving delight in blessing us abundantly. We leave in peace, forgiven, fed, and sent out with a purpose to make Christ known in the world.

The Blessing

Officiant

The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

VESTRY CANDIDATES

Vestry Candidates 2026

Ross Scarborough

It is an honor to be nominated for the vestry. I am an attorney with the firm of Saxton & Stump, LLC, in their probate and real estate litigation division. I began attending St. Michael's with my family in 1993. I grew up in the St. Michael's children's choir and was active with youth ministry. I regularly attend the 11 o'clock service, where I sing tenor in the choir. I am a member of the K2 Men's Bible Study, the Four Corners Bible Study, and host the James Island life group. I recently attended Cursillo #198. My father is former senior warden the Hon. Mikell Scarborough and my mother, Mary Scarborough, is active with the flower guild. I have a dog, Daisy, whose favorite service is the Blessing of the Animals.

Jane Thornhill Schachte

Jane Lucas Thornhill has been a lifelong member of St. Michael's Church, having been baptized, confirmed and married here. She is a graduate of the College of Charleston, spent 12 years in banking then 23 in retail with Talbots, retiring as a store manager in 2009. She then became a license tour with the city of Charleston and a licensed real estate agent with the Schachte Company. In 2018 she joined the Board of The Confederate Home and College as their recording secretary. In 2019 she also took on the position of insurance chairman for the Confederate Home. Jane currently serves on the tour commission for the city. She is a member of The Mission Task Force for the Holy City at St. Michael's. Jane is a member of The Preservation Society, The Colonial Dames, The Ladies Benevolent, The Charleston Tour Association, and a past member of The Junior League. Throughout her life she has volunteered with The Preservation Society and Historic Charleston Foundation. 1974-1975 she taught 6th grade Sunday school at St. Michael's. She has completed the Alpha and Beta courses at St. Michael's. She then was a volunteer for Alpha. She has completed 4 levels of healing prayer and attended many healing prayer days. She served as a Greeter and a Reader at the 6 pm Sunday services prior to Covid. She currently attends 3 Bibles studies. Jane is currently married to Joseph Wallace Schachte since 1991.

Ella Richardson

Ella Walton Richardson grew up in Columbia, SC as the youngest of five children with 2 sisters and 2 brothers. She was born to William (Bill) and Christine Richardson. The family attended Trinity Episcopal Cathedral. She graduated in 1975 from Hammond Academy. She was active in many sports as well as the girl scouts. Graduating from USC with BA degrees in Political Science and Psychology. Ella moved to Charleston in 1984. In 1998 she joined St. Michael's Church. She has been a member in good standing since then.

Attending and assisting with the Alpha Course, engaged in bible study courses and attends the super Wednesday dinners, currently on the Mission Task Force, serving with the Global Mission Outreach Group. Ella participated on 2 mission trips to Burundi, Africa with other St. Michaelites. She continues to be a supporter of GLO, Great Lakes Outreach and several of their mission partners in Burundi. From 2000-2010 Ella served on the board of directors for the Dee Norton Child Advocacy Center and was a past president of the same. In 2001 she opened Ella Walton Richardson Fine Art located at 58 Broad Street and will be celebrating its 25th anniversary in November. She enjoys family, photography, travel, golf, sailing,

Warden Candidates 2026

Robert Burnett - Senior Warden

I hold a BA in English Literature from Bowdoin College in Maine and an MBA from Columbia University School of Business in New York. My work allows me to work remotely, so my wife Susan and I were able to move to Charleston twenty three years ago to raise our two daughters, Emily and Elizabeth in a healthier, welcoming and Christian community. We live a short walk from St. Michaels. St. Michaels is the center of our spiritual life in Charleston. I have been honored to serve as a Lay Eucharistic Minister, Reader, Usher, Bell-Ringer, Tour Guide, Task Force and Vestry member. I am grateful for the opportunity to further serve the Lord and my fellow church members.

Dr. Lee Cox - Junior Warden

I am a graduate of Wake Forest University and hold MA and PhD degrees in English from the University of South Carolina. My wife Jo and I have been members of St. Michael's since moving to Charleston in 2010. I have been actively involved in men's ministry activities, particularly at MacDougall state prison where I volunteer in educational programs for inmates, which I approach from a Christian world-view perspective. Additionally, I have assisted with the Alpha program, have led a life group and am currently a member of the Life group led by my wife Jo. Much of my career has been devoted to Christian education. I served as headmaster at Christ Church Episcopal School in Greenville for ten years and, since leaving Greenville, have consulted and served as interim head at Christian schools in Georgia, Louisiana, and Texas. I have previously served on Vestry and as both a Junior and Senior Warden.

CONVENTION DELEGATE CANDIDATES 2026

Robert Burnett

My business, which conveys, markets and sells real estate at luxury resorts around the world, allows me to work remotely so my wife Susan and I were able to move from New York to Charleston twenty years ago to raise our two daughters, Emily and Elizabeth in a healthier, welcoming and Christian community. We live a short walk from St. Michael's. St. Michael's has been, and remains, at the center of our life in Charleston: I have been honored to serve as a Lay Eucharistic Minister bringing communion to house-bound members of the church, as a Reader, Usher, bell-ringer and task force member. I am grateful for the opportunity to further serve the Lord and my fellow church members.

Jennifer Polon

Jennifer Polon is native to South Carolina. She moved to Charleston for Nursing school in 2000. She met Dan Polon and they courted often at the evening service at St. Michael's. The Polon's have two children, Maddelle and Adam ages 17 and 15. Jennifer has served throughout the years at coffee hour, shawl guild and the Security team. Jennifer has been a cardiac nurse for 22 years at Roper Hospital. On her days off, she enjoys cooking, hiking, gardening and tending to her chickens.

Chris Sosnowski

My life at St. Michael's began longer ago than I want to believe - suffice to say I was about 6 years old at the time! I attended Sunday School religiously, so to speak, sang in the children's choir, and served as an acolyte and crucifer. I enjoyed being a member of youth groups and weekend retreats for young people. As an adult, I have gone through Cursillo and been on team several times, attended Alpha and other programs, served as usher and now am on the Safety Team. When, as a teenager, I was given a choice, I turned away from regular church attendance, and grappled with questions of faith. Having children brought my attendance up, as I wanted my daughters to experience church so that they could make educated decisions of their own. Eventually, I had a lightning strike experience at a Men's Conference at Camp St. Christopher, and have been walking with my Savior ever since!

Logan Bryan

In 2015 my wife, Belinda, and I were first introduced to St. Michael's Church when we were searching for a church in which to get married. This started our journey with St. Michael's and helped renew my faith in Jesus Christ. After completing "I Like Mike" my wife and I reaffirmed our faith and became members. I feel an intense calling from God and an internal desire to serve Him in His Church. St. Michael's has been and continues to be the most influential part of my life, helping me grow in my relationship with Christ. I wish to share that with others and bring more people into meaningful relationships with Jesus.

Anne Schaffer

Having grown up in Charleston, St. Michael's has been a source of healing and spiritual growth for me since my teenage years when I attended youth group with "Peter and Rossi." It became my home church in 2020 where I've had the joy to serve in various roles, including usher, VBS and Sunday School volunteer, Mission Task Force member, and prayer minister. In addition, I had a staff position the past two years where I assisted with audio-visual. Vocationally, I've served in a variety of roles locally and abroad, especially teaching and now coaching language learners. I am grateful to belong to a vibrant church with a holistic view of mission whose vision is to see the hearts of all-near and far-transformed through Jesus Christ. I believe in our vision of hearts being transformed through Jesus Christ and am grateful for our church's holistic view of mission: to bring the Good News of Jesus' transforming power to our Homes, Holy City, Hurt-ing Coast, and Hungering World. I pray that the Lord would give us the courage and grace to live this out!

Mikell Scarborough

St. Michael's Member since 1993, Usher Chairman (1995-2007), Lay Eucharistic Minister since 2006, Vestry Member, 1998-2001, Senior Warden, 2016-2018, Alpha, Financial Peace University, Cursillo #139, Cursillo #151 Team Member, Kanuga Parish Weekend coordinator with Mary in 2010, Small Group Member, Men's Ski Trip, VBS Mission Trip with Ross to Dominican Republic in 2007, Participant in St. Michael's Christmas Pageant. Married to Mary LeMacks Scarborough since 1986, Three Children: Ross, Elizabeth & Thomas, Charleston County Master in Equity since 2003.

Martha Dougherty

I have been a member of St. Michael's since the Fall of 1998. My husband Park and I have had the blessing of raising our three children here. I came to know Jesus Christ as I read the Bible with my children and attended a women's Biblically oriented Bible Study (BSF) where we read many books of the Bible. I discovered the joy of hearing God speak to me through his voice in the words of scripture. That changed my life. I continue to keep the Bible as my primary guide for every problem, event, and situation that comes along. I also continue to be involved in Women's Bible studies at St. Michael's. I have had the honor of serving on the Vestry and I look forward to continuing to serve on the Missions Task Force Committee. I have also taught many years of Sunday School, been on mission twice to Burundi, served at the TriCounty Family Ministries, the hot dog ministry, and sing in the choir. I am so thankful to be part of a Biblically grounded, inspiring church like St. Michael's.

David Reese

Christen and I came to St. Michael's from Atlanta GA. I came to Charleston as a college student and I graduated from The Citadel. Christen while not a Charleston native, spent the first two years of her life growing up on Meeting Street. St. Michael's has been a foundation for our marriage and we have been blessed by its many servant leaders who are dedicated to serving others. I have had the opportunity to serve with the ALPHA teams and see first hand the blessings of this ministry on people. This opportunity inspired me to working with different men's ministries, recognizing that many are eager to talk about Christ but they were seeking someone that would hold that meaningful and mutually respectful conversation. Christen and I were the co chairs of the Hurting Coast ministry that builds relationships all over the northeast. Following in the footsteps of others, we have seen where the Lord is calling us into service with ministries and churches to challenge us with the ministry of mission. We are currently serving as the Chairs of the Mission Task Force.

St. Michael's Healing PRAYER MINISTRY

"Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."
Matthew 11:28

HEALING PRAYER WORKSHOP
WILL RESUME IN SEPT. 2026

Come Experience the Restoring Presence of Jesus

ARE YOU CARRYING STRESS, GRIEF, PHYSICAL PAIN OR EMOTIONAL WOUNDS?

Join us for a gentle, Spirit-led Healing Prayer Workshop designed to create a safe and welcoming space for renewal and restoration.

This is not a performance or a spectacle - it is a peaceful environment of worship, teaching and guided prayer where you can encounter Christ's healing love.

WHAT TO EXPECT:

- Brief teaching on biblical healing
- Quiet worship and reflection
- Guided prayer exercises
- Personal prayer with trained ministry teams
- Optional anointing with oil (James 5:14-16)
- A calm, confidential setting

Whether you need physical healing, emotional restoration or simply space to breathe in God's presence, you are welcome.

Come with expectation.

Come with openness.

Come just as you are.

If you need prayer or would like a private prayer appointment with a prayer minister, call the church office at (843)723-0603 and someone will contact you.

For more information about the Healing Prayer Workshop, contact the Rev. Dr. Martha Toney at:
