Today's Sermon

Title: Stepping Into Deeper Ministry

Preacher: The Rev. Alfred T.K. Zadig, Jr.

As we approach the fall, we arrive at a critical juncture in survival and growth of the early church. The question came up, what do we do about those being left behind, like widows, and the impoverished, basically the least, last and lost? Well, through the power of the Holy Spirit, they chose several people to step across the line into servant leadership. The lives of those they touched would never be the same, nor would the new leaders be! Wherever you are in life and ministry today, might today be the day you step into a deeper ministry?

We will not have any balcony communion stations during the summer. Please come downstairs to receive communion at the rail.

Balcony stations will return on Sunday, September 8.

Service adapted from the Anglican Church of North America Prayer Book beginning on page 105.

Welcome families! No cry or laugh is too loud!

Pre-Song

Lord Whose Love in Humble Service

1. Lord, whose love through hum-ble ser-vice bore the weight of hu-man need,
3. As we wor-ship, grant us vi-sion, till your love's re-veal-ing light
4. Called by wor-ship to your ser-vice, forth in your dear name we go who up-on the cross, for-sak-en, of-fered mer-cy's per-fect deed:

in its height and depth and great-ness dawns up-on our quick-ened sight, to the child, the youth, the a-ged, love in liv-ing deeds to show;

we, your ser-vants, bring the wor-ship not of voice a-lone, but heart, mak-ing known the needs and bur-dens your com-pas-sion bids us bear, hope and health, good will and com-fort, coun-sel, aid, and peace we give, con-se-crating to your pur-pose ev-ery gift that you im-part.

stir-ring us to tire-less striv-ing your a-bun-dant life to share.
that your ser-vants, Lord, in free-dom may your mer-cy know, and live.

Text: Albert F. Bayly (1901-1984).alt.
Music: BEACH SPRING, attr. B.F. White (1800-1879)

The Pre-Song provides time and space to prepare the heart for worship. Please utilize this time for meditation, reflection, and prayer. The music should help you ponder the character and various attributes of God and His plan for the world. If any piece is hymn-based or chorale-based, a selection from the lyrics is provided to aid in prayer or reflection.

At this time please silence all cell phones and beepers.

It is customary upon entering to begin with a few moments of private prayer, usually kneeling.

Welcome

Officiant Blessed be God: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The liturgy begins with the Acclamation, which is an “eager expression” of praise.

The Collect for Purity

All Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

In this Prayer for Purity, we ask God to cleanse our hearts and minds of anything that comes between Him and us, anything that would impede our worship of him. We offer to Him our whole selves that we might decrease and that He might increase, to the glory of Jesus Christ.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is with - in me bless His ho - ly name. Repeat first time

Second time going on Fine

1. He has done great things, He has done great things,

He has done great things, bless His ho - ly name. Repeat first time
Second time to refrain

Words from Psalm 103:1, Psalm 126:3

Children's Message and Worship will resume Sunday, September 8th.

Refrain

Our heart, our de-sire, is to see the na-tions wor-ship;
 our cry, our prayer, is to sing Your praise to the ends of the earth;

Sermon

Stepping into Deeper Ministry
 The Rev. Alfred T.K. Zadig, Jr.

Reflective Music

The Scriptures teach that much of our spiritual renewal comes from hearing the Word of God, which cleanses our minds and purifies our hearts.

The Prayers of the People: This is a time during our service to pray for some people by name, who have requested prayers from us. We are limiting those mentioned "out loud" to the five most recent requests from church members and their families, but please note the following:

More than 60 Prayer Ministers at St. Michael's Church are praying for more than 50 people by name each day. Just because we have not said their name does not mean they are not being prayed for faithfully and daily. Also, please understand that we don't put anyone on any prayer list without their permission. To place someone on our prayer list, please call the church.

In the Confession of Sin and Absolution, our sins, both individual and corporate are confessed, and we are reassured of God's complete forgiveness through Jesus Christ. We begin with a cleansing admission and confession of sin followed by an authoritative pronouncement of God's forgiveness in Christ Jesus, which allow us to move forward in the power of forgiveness.

Officiant Let us pray for the Church and for the world, saying, "hear our prayer."

The Prayers of the People, kneeling

Leader Heavenly Father, thank you for Stephen, Philip, Procurus, Nicanur, Timon, Parmenas, Nicolas, and all past, present, and future deacons of St. Michael's Church, including Martha Toney and Lee Cox. We also thank you for all St. Michaelites who are serving in deacon-like roles. Come Holy Spirit and wherever we are in our ministry, bring us to that deeper place of servanthood and leadership, that more hearts would be saved and transformed through Jesus Christ. Lord in your mercy:
People Hear our prayer.

Leader We pray for God's people throughout the world, especially for those in the Middle East; for spiritual renewal, revival, and awakening; for Steve, Archbishop of the Anglican Church in North America, for Chip, our Bishop, and for the clergy, staff, and congregation of St. Michael's Church. Lord, in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Leader For our schools, teachers, coaches, and students here in our community. Lord, in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Leader For all the blessings of this life, especially for the weddings of James and Cynthia Coker and Lacy and Jonathan Dickson. Lord in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Leader For all those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity. We pray especially for Neil Dawson. Lord in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Leader For all those who have departed this life in the certain hope of the resurrection, especially for Anna Mathewes. Lord, in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Leader Heavenly Father, grant these our prayers for the sake of Jesus Christ, our only Mediator and Advocate, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People Amen.

The Confession, kneeling

Officiant Let us humbly confess our sins to Almighty God.
(Silence to reflect on those you have hurt and on those who have hurt you.)

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Absolution

Officiant Almighty God our heavenly Father, who in his great mercy has promised forgiveness of sins to all those who sincerely repent and with true faith turn to him, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace, standing

Officiant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And with your spirit.

Then the Ministers and People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

The Peace is a particularly good time to welcome visitors and newcomers. Please take a moment to extend God's peace to those around you. That peace, which the world cannot give, comes only through the forgiving of Jesus Christ. This peace is not rooted in our circumstances but in the presence, promise, and power of God and Christ's redeeming work.

Link to Venmo!

The Doxology swells up out of our gratitude to God for his goodness to us. The word “doxology” literally means “glory saying,” and so in this song we give God glory for his triune nature and as the author of all blessings.

Holy Communion, the Supper of the Lord, is not only a sign of the love that Christians ought to have among themselves for each other but is especially a sacrament of our redemption by Christ’s death.

The Sanctus is the song of the seraphim contained in the great vision that the prophet Isaiah experienced while worshipping in the Temple in Jerusalem. This vision is recorded in the 6th chapter of Isaiah. It is inspired by Isaiah’s vision of the heavenly court “Holy, holy, holy” acknowledging transcendence of God.

Doxology

Old 100th

*Praise God from whom all blessings flow
Praise Him all creatures here below
Praise Him above ye heavenly hosts
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost*

Holy Communion

(ACNA Prayer Book, beginning p. 132)

Officiant The Lord be with you.

All And with your spirit.

Officiant Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them up to the Lord.

Officiant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Officiant It is right, our duty and our joy, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and all the company of heaven who forever sing this hymn to the glory of your name.

The Sanctus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the Name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Prayer of Consecration, kneeling

Celebrant Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and when we had sinned against you and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent your only Son Jesus Christ into the world for our salvation. By the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary he became flesh and dwelt among us. In obedience to your will, he stretched out his arms upon the Cross and offered himself once for all, that by his suffering and death we might be saved. By his resurrection he broke the bonds of death, trampling Hell and Satan under his feet. As our great high priest, he ascended to your right hand in glory, that we might come with confidence before the throne of grace. On the night that he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take, eat; this is my Body, which is given for you: Do this in remembrance of me.”

Likewise, after supper, Jesus took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the forgiveness of sins: Whenever you drink it, do this in remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Celebrant We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, and we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Word and Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ. Sanctify us also, that we may worthily receive this holy Sacrament, and be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us and we in him. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us with all your saints into the joy of your heavenly kingdom, where we shall see our Lord face to face.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant And now as our Saviour Jesus Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray:

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, *who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen*

The Breaking of Bread

Celebrant Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the people of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The Invitation

The congregation will now receive communion at the rail, either kneeling at the rail for the wafer and cup, or receiving a mini-chalice (to be consumed at the altar rail). Everyone is invited to sing during communion. Personal prayer with St. Michael's prayer ministers is available during communion and after the service in the Prayer Pews in the North and/or South Aisle, located in the front corners, to the left and right of the altar.

The Lord's Prayer, so called because Jesus gave this prayer to His disciples as an example of how to pray, has been a part of Eucharistic liturgies since year 400 A.D. The link between our daily bread and the spiritual food we receive in the Eucharist is very ancient. In the context of the liturgy, the words "give us this day our daily bread" refer both to our daily needs as well as the "bread of Heaven" which we receive in the Eucharist.

During Communion:

When we gather together, we remember the presence of Jesus. By repeating the words and actions of Jesus' last meal with His disciples, we join the story and make it our own. We don't just watch the drama or listen to it unfold, we enter into the story as we, too, take the bread and wine and eat and drink.

As you approach the rail, you may choose to receive the bread and wine from the cup at the rail, or indicate you want a mini-chalice by placing your right hand over your heart. Please consume the elements in the mini-chalice at the altar rail.

 Gluten Free Wafers are Available: If you need a gluten free wafer, please indicate this at the altar rail by placing your hand over your heart.

Those at the rail will receive the bread in their hands, eat the bread, and then guide the chalice to their lips for a sip of the wine.

Those seated upstairs will need to come downstairs to receive communion at the rail

ORDER FOR RECEIVING COMMUNION

Post Communion Prayer, standing

All Heavenly Father, *we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the body of your Son and heirs of your eternal Kingdom. The Dismissal

Deacon Alleluia! Let us go forth into the world to transform hearts
People through Jesus Christ our Lord. Alleluia!

Postlude

Join us for coffee and lemonade in the Alley Foyer after the service!
(through the churchyard on the 1st floor of the Belser building, outside the Kinloch Room)
Water is also available under the Portico.

We stand to mark the fact that because we have received the body and blood of Jesus, we are changed people. We began on our knees and end standing through his body and blood.

We have been blessed by being here. Now, at the end of the service, we are reminded that God takes loving delight in blessing us abundantly. We leave in peace, forgiven, fed, and sent out with a purpose to make Christ known in the world.

As the celebration ends, we are charged to “go forth.” The Eucharist is therefore not an exclusive gathering that separates us from the world but a challenge to reach out beyond our own church to the world around us.
