Hog Dog Ministry

The Hot Dog Ministry served about 65 hungry people at Morris Brown AME Church downtown on March 10th. We celebrated March birthdays with a cupcake and singing plus giving away clothing to anyone needing it. The menu was our usual; fried chicken, green beans, potato salad, croissants, fruit, desserts with popsicles being given out when people arrive. Ross Scarborough read Mark 2:1 and then spoke about having people who can help you and making friends you can count on. The St. Michaelites who volunteered (see below) were Georgia and Ed Barnett, Sonya O'Malley, Jennifer Hartig, Kelli and Sophie McLain, Mary Horne and Pat Jennings. To volunteer or get information on upcoming dates, please contact Pat Jennings at bellinger.56@att.net

Are you a young adult thinking about going on a mission somewhere in the world? Have you heard of Rolecall? This is an Anglican initiative through New Wineskins that “exists to identify, equip, support, and mobilize the next generation [of young adults] for effective, creative, and sustainable engagement among the unreached and marginalized.” Click here to learn more, or you can register to attend an online interest meeting March 22 about an upcoming opportunity in Japan.
