A FESTIVAL OF LESSONS AND CAROLS

THE THIRD SUNDAY IN ADVENT
DECEMBER 11, 2022 • 10:30 AM

WELCOME

To all who are spiritually weary and seek rest,
to all who mourn and long for comfort,
to all who struggle and desire victory,
to all who sin and need a Savior,
to all who are strangers and want fellowship,
to all who hunger and thirst after righteousness,
to all who have been blessed and wish to give thanks,
and to whoever will come—this church opens wide her doors and offers her welcome in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Welcome to Lessons and Carols at St. Philip's!

Following the choral introit this morning, after a brief hush, a solo treble voice will ring out from the balcony with the joyous tidings that “Once in Royal David’s City” Jesus Christ was born, the fulfillment of God’s plan of salvation from the dawn of time.

And so Lessons and Carols begins each year—the glorious unfolding of God’s plan of salvation told once again in the words of nine lessons from the Holy Scriptures, read by parishioners from across the spectrum of ministries at St. Philip’s, beginning in Genesis and carrying through to the Gospel of St. John with the unimaginably good news of the Incarnation: “And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld his glory, glory as of the only begotten Son of the Father, full of grace and truth.” Following each reading, from our choirs and instrumentalists will come marvelous musical offerings accompanied by a wide variety of instruments, carefully chosen to help us reflect on the wonder and glory and beauty of the Lord and His most gracious gift, Jesus Christ.

2018 marked the 100th anniversary of the first Lessons and Carols service in the format we have come to know and love. In 1918, in the dark despair that gripped England after the Armistice that ended World War I, having left many of the best and brightest of that generation buried in the battlefields of France, a young British Army Chaplain, the Reverend Eric Milner-White, was appointed the Chaplain at King’s College, Cambridge. Having been in the trenches and having served as a stretcher bearer, he knew well the horrors of war and the loss of loved ones, and came to a university that was in mourning for the nearly fifteen hundred students that had died in the war. Milner-White prayed for guidance on how to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ in that context, and came up with the idea of a Lessons and Carols service that would proclaim the good news of God’s glorious plan of salvation by starting at the Book of Genesis and carrying right through Scripture to the great Incarnation Gospel passage in the first chapter of St. John’s Gospel, with carols to illustrate and celebrate each passage. The service was an immediate success and has now become one of the best-loved traditions in the Anglican world. Milner-White wrote the heartfelt words of the Bidding Prayer which opens the service, words that are especially poignant as one considers the context in 1918 of those empty pews and silent voices: “... let us remember before God all those who rejoice with us, but upon another shore, and in a greater light, that multitude which no man can number, whose hope was in the Word made flesh, and with whom in the Lord Jesus we are one for evermore.”

We at St. Philip’s do indeed rejoice that our hope is in the Word made flesh, and we are delighted to welcome all of you to ponder this wondrous gift as we worship together this morning!

THE WORD OF GOD

THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN 236

Once in Royal David's City

Irby

Solo: Once in royal David's city stood a lowly cattle shed,
Where a mother laid her baby in a manger for his bed:
Mary was that mother mild, Jesus Christ her little child.

Soloist: Adelyn Cummings, The Canterbury Choir

All Sing: He came down to earth from heaven, who is God and Lord of all,
And his shelter was a stable and his cradle was a stall;
With the poor, the scorned, the lowly lived on earth our Savior holy.
And through all his wondrous childhood he would honour and obey.
Love and watch the lowly maiden, in whose gentle arms he lay;
Christian children all must be mild, obedient, good as he.
For he is our childhood's pattern, day by day like us he grew;
He was little, weak, and helpless, tears and smiles like us he knew;
And he feeleth for our sadness, and he shareth all our gladness.
And our eyes at last shall see him, through his own redeeming love.
For that child so dear and gentle is our Lord in heaven above;
And he leads his children on to the place where he is gone.
Not in that poor lowly stable, with the oxen standing by,
We shall see him; but in heaven, set at God's right hand on high;
When like stars his children crowned all in white shall wait around.

THE BIDDING PRAYER

Officiant The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Officiant Let us pray.

All kneel. The officiant says

Beloved in Christ, in this season of Advent, let it be our care and delight to prepare ourselves to hear again the message of the Angels, and in heart and mind to go even unto Bethlehem, to see the Babe lying in a manger. Let us read and mark in Holy Scripture the tale of the loving purposes of God from the first days of our disobedience unto the glorious Redemption brought us by his holy Child; and let us look forward to the yearly remembrance of his birth with hymns and songs of praise. But first, let us pray for the needs of his whole world; for peace and goodwill over all the earth; for the mission and unity of the Church for which he died, and especially in this country and within this city. And because this of all things would rejoice his heart, let us at this time remember in his name the poor and the helpless; the hungry and the oppressed; the sick and those who mourn; the lonely and the unloved; the aged and the little children; and all those who know not the Lord Jesus, or who love him not, or who by sin have grieved his heart of love. Lastly, let us remember before God his pure and lowly Mother, and all those who rejoice with us, but upon another shore and in a greater light, that multitude which no one can number, whose hope was in the Word made flesh, and with whom, in this Lord Jesus, we for evermore are one. These prayers and praises let us humbly offer up to the throne of heaven, in the words which Christ himself hath taught us:

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Officiant and people pray

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Officiant The Almighty God bless us with his grace; Christ give us the joys of everlasting life; and unto the fellowship of the citizens above may the King of Angels bring us all. Amen.

The people stand and sing the hymn.

HYMN

Lo! He Comes With Clouds Descending

Helmsley

Lo! He comes with clouds descending, once for favored sinners slain;
Thousand thousand saints attending swell the triumph of his train.
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia! Christ the Lord returns to reign.

Ev'ry eye shall now behold him, robed in glorious majesty;
Those who set at naught and sold him, pierced, and nailed him to the tree,
Deeply wailing, deeply wailing, deeply wailing, shall the true Messiah see.

Those dear tokens of his passion still his dazzling body bears,
Cause of endless exultation to his ransomed worshippers;
With what rapture, with what rapture, with what rapture gaze we on those glorious scars!

Yea, Amen! Let all adore thee, high on thine eternal throne;
Savior, take the power and glory; claim the kingdom for thine own;
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia! Thou shalt reign, and thou alone.

THE FIRST LESSON

Genesis 3:8-19

God tells sinful Adam that he has lost the life of Paradise and that his seed will bruise the serpent's head.

Reader: John Self, Young Adults Ministry

⁸ And they heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day: and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God amongst the trees of the garden. ⁹ And the LORD God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where art thou? ¹⁰ And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself. ¹¹ And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat? ¹² And the man said, The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat. ¹³ And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat. ¹⁴ And the LORD God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life: ¹⁵ And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel. ¹⁶ Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee. ¹⁷ And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life; ¹⁸ Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field; ¹⁹ In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return.

CAROL

This Is the Truth Sent from Above

arr. J. Kirkby (b. 1949)

The St. Philip's Choir

This is the truth sent from above, the truth of God, the God of love:
Therefore don't turn me from your door, but hearken all, both rich and poor.
The first thing which I do relate is that God did man create,
The next thing which to you I'll tell, woman was made with man to dwell.
Then after this, 'twas God's own choice to place them both in Paradise, there to remain, from evil free, except they ate of such a tree.
But they did eat, which was a sin, and thus their ruin did begin.
Ruined themselves, both you and me, and all of their posterity.
Thus we were heirs to endless woes, till God the Lord did interpose,
And so a promise soon did run, that he would redeem us by his Son.

Traditional English carol collected by R. Vaughan Williams (1872-1958) arr. James Kirkby (b. 1949)

THE SECOND LESSON

Genesis 22:15-18

God promises to faithful Abraham that in his seed shall the nations of the earth be blessed.

Reader: Micah Gardner, St. Cecilia Choir

¹⁵And the angel of the LORD called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time, ¹⁶and said, By myself have I sworn, saith the LORD, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son: ¹⁷That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies; ¹⁸And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice.

The Angel Gabriel

arr. John R. Howell (1936-2013)

The Canterbury Choir

Angelina Dempsey, soprano

The angel Gabriel from heaven came,
His wings as drifted snow, his eyes as flame.
"All hail," said he, "Thou lowly maiden Mary,
Most highly favored lady." Gloria.

"For known a blessed mother thou shalt be,
All generations laud and honor thee.
Thy Son shall be Emmanuel, by seers foretold,
Most highly favored lady." Gloria

Then gentle Mary meekly bowed her head,
"To me be as it pleaseth God," she said.
"My soul shall laud and magnify His holy name."
Most highly favored lady, Gloria.

Of her Emmanuel, the Christ, was born
In Bethlehem all on a Christmas morn,
And Christian folk throughout the world will ever say,
"Most highly favored lady." Gloria.

THE THIRD LESSON

Isaiah 9:2, 6-7

The prophet foretells the coming of the Savior.

Reader: Jill Settle, Home Missions Team Co-Chair

²The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined. ⁶For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. ⁷Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

For Unto Us a Child is Born
The St. Cecilia, Canterbury, and St. David Choirs

arr. J. Stevens, W.D. Landes

For unto us a child is born, unto us a Son is given:
And the government shall be upon his shoulder;
And his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor,
The Mighty God, the everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace.

Text: Isaiah 9:6. Music: from Messiah, G.F. Handel (1685-1759) arr. James Stevens and W. Daniel Landes

THE FOURTH LESSON

Isaiah 11:1-9

The peace that Christ will bring is foreshown.
John Kerrison, Bible Study Leader

¹And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots: ²And the spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD; ³And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the LORD: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears: ⁴But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth: with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked. ⁵And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins. ⁶The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them. ⁷And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. ⁸And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice' den. ⁹They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

The Lamb
The St. Philip's Choir

John Tavener (1944-2013)

Little lamb, who made thee? Dost thou know who made thee?
Gave thee life, and bid thee feed by the stream and o'er the mead;
Gave thee clothing of delight, softest clothing, wooly bright;
Gave thee such a tender voice, making all the vales rejoice?

Little lamb, I'll tell thee; he is called by thy name, for he calls himself a Lamb.
He is meek, and he is mild, he became a little child.
I, a child, and thou a lamb, we are called by his Name.
Little lamb, God bless thee!

Words: William Blake (1757-1827), from Songs of Innocence and Experience
Music: John Tavener (1944-2013)

HYMN 9

Hark! A Thrilling Voice Is Sounding

Merton

Hark! a thrilling voice is sounding. "Christ is nigh," it seems to say;
"Cast away the works of darkness, O ye children of the day."
Wakened by the solemn warning, from earth's bondage let us rise;
Christ, our sun, all sloth dispelling, shines upon the morning skies.
Lo! the Lamb, so long expected, comes with pardon down from heaven;
Let us haste, with tears of sorrow, one and all to be forgiven;
So when next he comes with glory, and the world is wrapped in fear,
May he with his mercy shield us, and with words of love draw near.
Honor, glory, might, and blessing to the Father and the Son,
With the everlasting Spirit while unending ages run.

Words: Latin, ca. 6th cent.; tr. Hymns Ancient and Modern, 1861, alt.
Music: Merton, William Henry Monk (1823-1889); desc. Alan Gray (1855-1933)

The angel Gabriel salutes the Virgin Mary.

Reader: Keller DeAntonio, St. David Choir

²⁶ And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, ²⁷ to a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. ²⁸ And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women. ²⁹ And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be. ³⁰ And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God. ³¹ And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. ³² He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: ³³ And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. ³⁴ Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? ³⁵ And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. ³⁶ And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren. ³⁷ For with God nothing shall be impossible. And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. ³⁸ And the angel departed from her.

A Christmas Antiphonal

Hal Hopson (b. 1933)

The St. Philip's, Canterbury, and St. David Choirs

Who is he that is born this night? Tell us, O tell us!
He is Mary's Son, the Holy Child. Alleluia.
He is God's own Son, the Lord of all.

Words and music by Hal Hopson (b. 1933)

THE SIXTH LESSON

Matthew 1:18-23

St. Matthew tells the birth of Jesus.

Reader: Jimmy Bailey, Usher Ministry

¹⁸ Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost. ¹⁹ Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily. ²⁰ But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost. ²¹ And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus: for he shall save his people from their sins. ²² Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, ²³ Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

Three French Noels

arr. R.E. Schram (b. 1956)

The Canterbury and St. David Choirs

Sing we now of Christmas, Noel, sing we here! Hear our grateful praises to the Babe so dear.
Sing we Noel, the King is born, Noel! Sing we now of Christmas, sing we all Noel!
Here among the cattle mild, sleep, O tiny Child.
Angels hover near, seraphim appear, whispering adoration to the Babe so dear.
Under the stars on Christmas night, under the stars so clear and bright,
We hear the rush of angels' wings; we hear the song the angels sing.

Noel Nouvelet, Le Soleil de l'Enfant, Noel des Ausels. arr. Ruth Elaine Schram (b. 1956)

All stand and sing the hymn.

Hark! The herald angels sing Glory to the newborn King!
 Peace on earth and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled!
 Joyful, all ye nations rise, join the triumph of the skies;
 With the angelic host proclaim Christ is born in Bethlehem!

Refrain: Hark! the herald angels sing
 Glory to the Newborn King!

Christ, by highest heav'n adored; Christ the everlasting Lord;
 Late in time behold him come, offspring of the Virgin's womb,
 Veiled in flesh the Godhead see; hail the incarnate Deity,
 Pleased as man with man to dwell; Jesus, our Emmanuel! Refrain

Mild he lays his glory by, born that man no more may die,
 Born to raise the sons of earth, born to give them second birth.
 Ris'n with healing in his wings, light and life to all he brings,
 Hail, the Sun of Righteousness! Hail, the heav'n-born Prince of Peace! Refrain

THE SEVENTH LESSON

Luke 2:8-16

The shepherds go to the manger.

Reader: Cam Stuhr, Altar Guild

⁸ And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. ⁹ And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. ¹⁰ And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. ¹¹ For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. ¹² And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. ¹³ And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, ¹⁴ Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men. ¹⁵ And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us. ¹⁶ And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

God Rest Ye Merry, Gentlemen

Arr. Kelly J. Turner

The Gentlemen of the St. Philip's and St. David Choirs

God rest ye merry, gentlemen, let nothing you dismay.
 Remember Christ, our Saviour, was born on Christmas Day
 To save us all from Satan's power when we were gone astray. Oh tidings of comfort and joy.
 From God our Heavenly Father a blessed angel came,
 And unto certain shepherds brought tidings of the same,
 How that in Bethlehem was born the Son of God by name.
 And when they came to Bethlehem where our dear Savior lay,
 They found him in a manger where oxen feed on hay,
 His mother Mary kneeling down unto the Lord did pray.
 Now to the Lord sing praises, all you within this place,
 And with true love and brotherhood each other now embrace,
 This holy tide of Christmas all other doth deface.

Traditional English carol arr. Kelly J. Turner.

THE EIGHTH LESSON

Matthew 2:1-12

The Wise Men are led by the star to Jesus.

Reader: Penn Hagood, Junior Warden

¹ Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, ² saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him. ³ When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. ⁴ And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born. ⁵ And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judaea: for thus it is written by the prophet, ⁶ And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel. ⁷ Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared. ⁸ And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also. ⁹ When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. ¹⁰ When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. ¹¹ And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense and myrrh. ¹² And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

The Star of Kings
The St. Philip's Choir

Philip Stopford (b. 1977)

Three sons of man in regal cloaks, turn your eyes aloft.
See the light that shines from me, a beacon sent by God.
A journey lies before you now like none you ever made,
A promise of a King of kings whose light shall never fade.
"Follow me, an infant born today."
Baking sands and foreign lands, keep looking to the sky.
I am here to guide your way, and he's the reason why.
Your precious gifts shall find him there in humble hay and straw.
The hope of man, a swaddling child, the one you're looking for.
Weary men of royal blood follow where I go.
I'll burn bright 'til journey's end, a sacred path to show.
And when you kneel before that King whom angels have foretold,
Anoint him with the gifts you bring, myrrh, frankincense, and gold.
A child of light, the Son of God, and you shall see him grow.
His words will light the path of man, his deeds the world will know.
And as my light did show the way to his celestial birth,
The gift he brings to you today is given in his words:
"Follow me and be reborn, you'll be reborn today."

THE NINTH LESSON

John 1:1-14

Saint John unfolds the great mystery of the Incarnation.

Reader: The Rector

¹ In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ² The same was in the beginning with God. ³ All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. ⁴ In him was life; and the life was the light of men. ⁵ And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not. ⁶ There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. ⁷ The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe. ⁸ He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light. ⁹ That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. ¹⁰ He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not. ¹¹ He came unto his own, and his own received him not. ¹² But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: ¹³ Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. ¹⁴ And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

Long may our land be bright with freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might, Great God, our King. Amen.

Music: America, in Thesaurus Musicus, 1740. Words: Samuel Francis Smith, 1832.

THE CLOSING PRAYER AND BLESSING

Priest The Lord be with you.
People And with thy spirit.
Priest Let us pray.

All kneel.

After the blessing, all stand and sing the recessional hymn.

THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN 2

O Come, O Come, Emmanuel

Veni Emmanuel

O come, O come, Emmanuel, and ransom captive Israel,
That mourns in lonely exile here until the Son of God appear.

Refrain: Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel!

O come, O come, thou Lord of might, who to thy tribes on Sinai's height
In ancient times didst give the law, in cloud, in majesty, and awe. Refrain

O come, thou Dayspring from on high, and cheer us by thy drawing nigh;
Disperse the gloomy clouds of night, and death's dark shadow put to flight. Refrain

O come, Desire of nations, bind in one the hearts of all mankind;
Bid thou our sad divisions cease, and be thyself our King of Peace. Refrain

Words: Hymnal Version, based on Latin, c. 9th cent.; St. 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, pub. Cologne, 1710

Music: Veni Emmanuel, Melody adapted from plainsong, Mode I, by Thomas Helmore, 1854. Descant by David Willcocks.

THE DISMISSAL

The priest dismisses the people, and the people respond:

Thanks be to God. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Wassail Bowl Reception is in the Parish Hall immediately following this service. Please enjoy some savory bites, sweet treats, and hot mulled cider—otherwise known as wassail—as you mingle!

Poinsettia Delivery: Every year at Christmas time, the St. Philip's Compassion Committee provides poinsettias and cards to parishioners who are especially in our hearts this season. We need your help to get them delivered! As you're leaving the Wassail Bowl, please go by the downstairs entryway of the Parish House and pick up a plant (or a few plants!) to deliver to someone who lives near you or on your route home. The poinsettias will be sorted by ZIP code and the cards will have complete addresses.

Men's Event Tomorrow: "Come Further Up, Come Further In," which offers prayer, study, discussion, and fellowship for men of all ages, meets tomorrow, December 12, at 7:00 p.m. at Henry's on the Market. Contact Mark Finlay with questions: (202) 550-2120.

Christmas flower memorial/thanksgiving dedications are due by 5:00 p.m. this Wednesday, December 14, for inclusion in the Christmas Eve bulletins. Scan the QR code at right or visit our website to submit your loved ones' information. Forms are also available in the narthex and in the church office.

20s-30s Oyster Roast is January 8 from 3:00 to 5:00 on the Parish House lawn. Children are welcome! Early bird adult tickets are available for $20 through this Thursday, December 15. Register at stphilipchurchsc.org/events (pay-what-you-can option available).

The Vestry Nominating Committee is accepting Vestry nominations through December 16. Please visit our website for details: stphilipchurchsc.org/vestry-nominations.

The Angel Trees are leaving today! Thank you to all who have already donated gift cards. If you haven't yet participated and would like to, please pick an ornament from the tree and drop your gift card(s) off at the church office by tomorrow at 9:00 a.m. Your donation will help neighbors in need at Lowcountry Pregnancy Center and Star Gospel Mission.
