

The Ballast of My Soul

(Colossians 2:6-7)

W: Scott Tormanen, Evan Dolan

M: Scott Tormanen, Evan Dolan, Dawson
Bryant, Campbell Bortel, Julie Harris, Meghan
Weibling, Joel Conrad

Key: F (capo 1)

Time: 3/4

BPM: 70

Intro: | E | G#m | A | C#m | (x2)

Verse 1

Should my ship be lost at sea
Without sign of solid ground
Dreadful though the tempest be
I am destined not to drown
Christ, my anchor in the waves
Though the mighty billows roll
'Til I'm given to the grave
He's the ballast of my soul

Verse 2

Should my wealth and honor grow
And tremendous gain result
There will I be tempted so
That my heart might self-exult
See the Savior, crucified
His compassions, manifold
May He mortify my pride
He's the ballast of my soul

Verse 3

Should a wolf disguised as sheep
Seek to steal my soul away
Though the false be flavored sweet
My embattled heart will say:
Christ the Shepherd guards my way
He has washed my filthy wool
He is all my hope and stay
He's the ballast of my soul

Chorus:

Christ the Lord will hold me firm
I will not be overturned
Weighted deep within the hull
He's the ballast of my soul