

The Former Things

Word and Music: Scott Tormanen

$\text{♩} = 85$
F

(intro)

(1.) How ho - ly, great, and hal - lowed, He who hails from Glo - ry's gil - ded scene who fear - ful, fool - ish, faith - less - we whose wick - ed - ness would kill the King who as a new - born ba - by cried and as a suf - fer - ing Sav - ior died. Through sense the sting of sin's off - ense when with our Mak - er we con - tend. Though ren - ded veil He draws us - close From death's re - pose Re - dee - mer - rose and hope - less might the help - less seem the wretch is still in Christ re - deemed. Be - thus dis - posed of our de - cay The form - er things have passed a - way

- hold the Pot - ter's mold - ed clay The form - er things have passed a - way We once were lost in our own way

(2.) How

Christ is all our hope and stay. Our sin for - giv - en ran - som paid The form - er things have passed a - way (interlude)

36 B \flat Am Gm Dm C

3. How gloo-my would the grave-side feel were Heav-en's hope left un-re-vealed? Yet

41 Dm Gm Dm C F

oft we work with short-ened-sight Like mid-night toil in can-dle-light— O, fight un-til your

46 B \flat Dm C F Gm

fin-al-breath, the sin and sor-row found in death For soon we'll see His face and say, The

51 Dm C F Dm B \flat

[Refrain]

form - er things have passed a - way. — We once were lost in our own way.

56 F C Dm B \flat

Christ is all our hope and stay O u sin for - giv - en, ran - som paid. The

60 Dm C F B \flat F B \flat

form - er things have passed a - way (interlude)

Cre
(4.)

66 F B \flat Dm C F

a - tion will be made a - new your ho - ly bride a - dorned for - you. No temp - le left to

71 Gm Dm C F/A B \flat

oc - cu - py no need for sun or moon to shine. You'll wipe a - way our fal - len tears our

76 Dm C F/A Gm Dm B \flat

mourn - ful past, our deep - est fears. The song we'll sing up - on that day the form - er things have

81 C F [Refrain] Dm Bb F

passed a - way! _____ We once were lost in our own way Christ is all our hope and stay. Our sin for - giv - en, rans - om paid. The form - er things have 90 1. C C F Bb 2.

86 C Dm Bb Dm

passed a - way. We passed a - way! _____

94 F Bb F2
