Not Too Little

You may think I'm just a little guy, just a little dude

I have a smile on my face, but there are many days

There's not much else I do, I can't reach the top of the camel

I still need help to tie my shoes the world looks different close to the ground, But every day's brand new

"Abel please get the camel food"

"I'll hold you sign little dude"

I may not be the fastest in a race. I'm just a little guy

Sometimes I'm laughing so hard my drink comes out my nose

And sometimes I still cry I know God says I'm special

Even when I want to hide I can still move mountain when God's by my side

I'm not too little I'm not too little for great big things.

When everything around me feels so big; I close my eyes and start to sing

I'm not too little I'm not too little to understand

Little people can do what big ones can, When someone even bigger holds their hand

"That's the spirit! Just because you're small doesn't mean you can't do big things!"

Maybe I could play for the King!

Is there something I can bring to a baby King

I know I can give my all and.... I'll.... Stand... tall

I'm not too little, not too little for great big things

When everything around me feels so big, I close my eyes and start to sing

I'm not too little not too little to understand

Little People can do what big ones can, when someone even bigger----- holds their hand... Yeah!

Estelle's Interlude 2 (Music Interlude)

Wise Men Processional (Musical Interlude)

Worship the King

We have traveled far....to find the One; Worthy of worship and praise

The star has led us here and now—we--- come--- to catch a glimpse of His face

We have come to worship the King X come to worship the King!

“I really love these sort of things. Some Kings—they don’t have time for it. Me? I always make time.”

We have seen the star We have traveled far

And we desire to bow our knee before the Holy One

We have studied the charts and we are pretty smart

We humbly ask assistance as we bow our knee and come to...

Worship, Worship the King

Worship, Worship the King.

We have come to worship, worship the King

Worship, worship the King.

“This is just wonderful. I completely support this trip of worship.

Where will the baby be born?

“Come again”

Where will the baby be born?

“What’s that?”

We need to find this Baby--

“It almost sounded like you said the word “baby”

Where will the baby be born?

“There it is again”

Where will the baby be born

“Are you hearing it too?”

We need to find this Baby!

“Baby?! You’re not here to worship ME?”

How can this happen? Tell me how can this be?

These people are not here to worship me

How awkward How rude I’ll never live this down!

You are the best. Everyone worships you,

Great magnificent Herod X Herod the Great!

“But not them, THEY want to worship a BABY! Who worships a baby?”

“Uhhhhhhh. Sorry for the misunderstanding, King. We were told you might know how to find this Baby.”

“Of course, I know Obviously”

Where will the baby be born

Right! The Baby

Where will the baby be born

I love Babies!

Please help us in our journey

Someone research this please

Where will the baby be born

What a great day!

Where will the baby be born

They say He’s the King of the Jews

Please help us in our journey

“Something, blah, blah, blah, Bethlehem”

To worship worship the King!

“Yeah, yeah, yeah...I got it ‘worship, worship the King.’ No need to continue. Go, make a careful search for the Child. As soon as you find Him, report to me, so that I may go and worship Him, too.”

King of the World

We bow down, honored to be in Your pre---sence

We've traveled such a long way. X X We bow our heads in rev—erence

We honor this new King --to Him our gifts we bring---

A gift that shines like the morning sun I bring to the King the prophets foretold.

May Your kingdom prosper, Your will be done. This is my gift of gold.

A gift that's pure and smells so sweet will add to Your wealth.

I'm sure you'll concur. We humble lay this at Your feet—frankincense and myrrh

But what do you give to the King--- of the world?

What can we offer? What gift can we bring---?

What can you do after angels sing? How can you follow with anything that is worthy--- of a Savior's welcoming? What do you give

I don't have gold or none of that stuff.

I'm not very old; nothing I have will be enough.

“What's your name?” “Abel.” “Would you like to play your drum for Jesus?” (drummer)

I'll give my all to the King--- of the world.

I'll give my all; it's the least I can bring----

I will bow down as the angels sing. I will bow down, give my everything for He's worthy---- of a Savior's welcoming I'll give my all...

I'll give my all...I'll give my all---

Be Born in me Today with The Little Drummer Dude (Reprise)

Come and see, come and see, this precious baby--- a King
Come and hear, come and hear, the joyful sound-- that God is near.
A Baby's cry a humble place God is nigh oh amazing grace-----

In our need, in our pain, into our ordinary world,
the Savior is born in humility Love came down

Let your peace, fall like rain into our humble lives we pray
O Bethlehem King, be born in me to day!

Break through, break through my complacency Lord, set me free
Break through, break through the deception from the enemy...

Take this little life; I offer it as a sacrifice.
This gift I give--- to You.
In our need, in our pain, into our ordinary world---
The Savior is born in humility. Love came down----

Let your peace, fall like rain, into our humble lives, we pray
O Bethlehem King-----be born in me today

“In the Father’s wisdom, He placed a brilliant star in the sky to guide the Wise Men and this band to meet the newborn KING. I am that star, the Star of Bethlehem. God gave me the privilege of shining my light to guide them to Jesus, the Savior of the world.

Their journey complete, their trek at an end, they started to wonder, the WiseMen and friends,
Could it be that this is no earthly king?
Could it possibly be that He’s the King
The King of everything
