THIS MONTH AT TBC

Angel Tree - TBC is once again sponsoring the Prison Fellowship Angel Tree, helping connect incarcerated parents with their children at Christmas. Each angel tag represents a child and includes gift ideas, clothing sizes, and a personal message from their parent. Pick an angel from the tree (outside KidStreet), purchase and wrap the suggested gift(s) — a large gift bag works great — and return them to the church by December 14. Thank you for helping make a child's Christmas brighter and showing God's love in a meaningful way!

Ladies Connect Join us on November 4 at 6 PM for an evening of crafts and the power of imprinting God's word on your heart. For more information and to register, go to tbcnow.org/tbc-ladies-connect.

Men's Movie Night Men, join us for a great night of fellowship as we watch "The Forge" on Friday, November 14th at 7:00 PM in the KidStreet Worship Center! Before the movie, guest speaker Kyle Cox will give a powerful challenge on the importance of mentorship, and we'll have sodas and fresh popcorn. The cost for this event is $5. Register at tbcnow.org/men-of-iron.

Join us for Surviving the Holidays, Thursday, November 20, 2025 6:00-8:00 PM in room G-216. This special event is a part of the GriefShare Ministry, and is a one-night event that will address grieving the loss of a loved one during the holidays. The holidays can intensify feelings of grief, but you don't have to navigate them alone. This two-hour event will offer support and guidance on managing difficult emotions, creating a holiday plan, navigating social gatherings, and finding hope for the future. Registration is required for this event. Please contact the TBC Office for more information: (336) 996-7573 or online at tbcnow.org/grief-share to register.

COMING UP...

The Gift - The timeless classic The Gift of the Magi comes to life in a brand-new 65-minute musical! Written in 1905 by Greensboro native O. Henry, this story of Della and Jim reminds us that selfless love is the greatest gift of all. Join us Saturday, December 6 & Sunday, December 7 at 6 PM for this special production—complete with free desserts, coffee, cocoa, and photo ops! Nursery available both nights.
Send us your Christmas Picture! We're also creating a special video featuring Christmas photos from our TBC family—please send one photo per family to office@tbcnow.org by November 20.

Jewels for Jesus Join us for a New Study on the Beatitudes. The Ladies-only Jewels for Jesus Sunday Circle invites you to participate in a new study that will launch December 7. In Matthew 5, Jesus opened the Sermon on the Mount with the Beatitudes, which are seven statements beginning with “blessed are...” that are followed by an eighth “blessed are” statement serving as a benediction. These eight statements collectively paint a portrait of what the ideal disciple of Jesus looks like. This is a three-month unit exploring the Beatitudes. Join us on this journey beginning Sunday, December 7 at 9:00 AM in room E-106!

TBC Choir Christmas Concert Join us at the 9AM Sunday morning service on December 14, in the Worship Center, as the TBC Adult Choir presents a 30-minute Christmas Celebration Concert, Hope Was Born This Night. Come hear the angels' invitation to shepherds and see the star that summoned the Wise Men. Come find the stable where a young mother held her newborn Son, turning an animal feeding trough into a cradle. God's plan to call His people back to Him was unfolding, and from that moment on, the world could know hope and peace through this One named Jesus. Come join this journey as we worship our Living Hope.
