Sermon Review Questions:

1. Are you the type of person who makes New Year's Resolutions, why or why not? If you do make goals at the beginning of a calendar year, tell about some of the goals you are working on for this year.
2. In the first two points, tell about an instance last year where God protected you or provided for you in some area? How does this example give you confidence going into an uncertain future?
3. Tell about something you feel God may be calling you to that is different from where you've been or what you've done in the past. How would you describe your feelings, emotions, or apprehensions about this change?
4. Describe something that this message revealed about the character of God, the Person of Jesus, or the ministry of the Holy Spirit? Explain your answer and what you learned in the process.
5. As you consider the sermon as a whole, what was the most impactful point that was made? Why do you think this point spoke to you personally? Explain your answer.
6. What is one point of action that you can implement this week as a result of this passage and the sermon preached?
