Ice Breaker:

What was the most memorable part of your Thanksgiving or Christmas holiday season? Take a few minutes to reconnect with your group since the break.

Explore the Text:

Take a minute to read through the text that was preached on Sunday and discuss any themes that you noticed.

Describe how Paul transitions from the previous passage (II Corinthians 6:1-17) into a new theme for our study this week. Are there any lingering thoughts you had from the previous week's sermon in this series?

What would you consider to be the primary verse or key phrase from Paul's writing in this passage?

Sermon Review Questions:

1. Pastor Rob said, "A torn spirit cannot fully know God." Explain what this statement means to you and how you have found it to be true.
2. Describe an area of your life where you currently feel "torn" in some way. As you consider this situation, what steps can you take toward resolving the tension?
3. Take a moment to read Matthew 11:28-30. What can we learn from the example of Jesus in the area of striking a balance between light and darkness?
4. Describe something that this message revealed about the character of God, the Person of Jesus, or the ministry of the Holy Spirit? Explain your answer and what you learned in the process.
5. As you consider the sermon as a whole, what was the most impactful point that was made? Why do you think this point spoke to you personally? Explain your answer.
6. What is one point of action that you can implement this week as a result of this passage and the sermon preached?
