Ice Breaker:

What is the most terrifying thing you've done in your life? How did you get the courage in order to do it and how do you reflect on it today?

Explore the Text:

As you reflect on the previous passage (II Thessalonians 2:1-8), how does Paul transition into this week's passage? What are some of the key themes that you noticed in this week's passage? Is there something you read in this passage that you may not have noticed before?

Sermon Review Questions:

1. Tell about a time when you tried to love truth and unrighteousness at the same time. What were the details and what was the outcome?
2. In considering a “strong delusion” what is a lie that you once believed but have come to understand the truth? What was a lesson you learned in the process?
3. Pastor Rob said, “The repentance that arises in the storm, but dies in the calm, is not true repentance.” Have you found this to be true for you? Explain your answer.
4. In the final point, “a settled destiny” how did this concept bring the sermon and the passage full circle?
5. As you consider the sermon as a whole, what was the most impactful point that was made? Why do you think this point spoke to you personally? Explain your answer.
6. What is one point of action that you can implement this week as a result of this passage and the sermon preached?
