1. What are the dangers when a church tolerates idleness? Can you give an example of why this is true or how you have come to see it?
2. Has there been a time in your life when you felt like you were a burden to other people? What was the situation and how did you reach this conclusion?
3. Pastor Rob said, “Whatever you give your attention to, that’s what you value.” Tell about a time when you found this to be true and it highlighted what you truly valued.
4. Since “religion does the dishes and relationship sits at His feet,” what can you change about your daily practice to make your relationship with Him more important to you?
5. As you consider the sermon as a whole, what was the most impactful point that was made? Why do you think this point spoke to you personally? Explain your answer.
6. What is one point of action that you can implement this week as a result of this passage and the sermon preached?
