Ice Breaker:

Have you read any books this year that you found to be impactful? If so, share something you read in the book. If not, what's a book you plan to start reading soon?

Explore the Text:

As you reflect on the previous passage (II Thessalonians 2:7-12), how does Paul transition into this week's passage? What are some of the key themes that you noticed in this week's passage? Is there something you read in this passage that you may not have noticed before?

Sermon Review Questions:

1. Pastor Rob talked about “traditions” in the text, such as oral and written messages handed down from one person to another. What are some traditions that have been handed down to you personally? How have you come to view these in your life?
2. Explain one way that you have been “submissive to the cutting process” in your background? Have you been resistant to this process? Explain your answer.
3. Pastor Rob said, “I had to learn that I wasn’t serving God for the stage.” How can you make this concept personal to you?
4. Explain the significance of stability and its role in our ability to be fruitful in the Christian life?
5. As you consider the sermon as a whole, what was the most impactful point that was made? Why do you think this point spoke to you personally? Explain your answer.
6. What is one point of action that you can implement this week as a result of this passage and the sermon preached?
