Ice Breaker:

What's an unexpected life lesson that you have learned recently?

Explore the Text:

Take a minute to read through the context of Matthew 5 before the text verses (specifically v.19-20, v.21-22, v.27-28, v.31-32, v.33-34, v.38-39).

Based on this context, describe how Jesus sets up v.43-44 in dealing with our enemies.

Sermon Review Questions:

1. Why is it difficult for you personally to acknowledge the fact that you have been hurt by other people? Can you give a specific example of this?
2. Tell about a time when you “got even” or you tried to “get even” with someone over an injustice that was done to you or someone close to you? How did the situation play out and how do you view it today?
3. Of the four “misconceptions of forgiveness,” which of them resonated most with you? Explain your answer.
4. Have you experienced a situation where you were able to forgive someone, but reconciliation or restoration of relationship was not possible? Tell about this example and what you learned from going through it?
5. As you consider the sermon as a whole, what was the most impactful point that was made? Why do you think this point spoke to you personally? Explain your answer.
6. What is one point of action that you can implement this week as a result of this passage and the sermon preached?
