Ice Breaker:

If you could change one thing about your upbringing, what would it be and why?

Explore the Text:

Take a minute to read through the series text that was preached two weeks ago from II Corinthians and discuss any themes that you noticed.

Describe how Paul moves from the previous passage (11:16-27) into this week's portion?

What would you consider to be the primary verse or key phrase from this passage?

Sermon Review Questions:

1. AW Tozer said, "It is doubtful whether God can bless a man greatly until he has hurt him deeply." How have you found this quote to be true? Explain your answer.
2. Has there been a time when you received deliverance, but experienced some humiliation in the process? Be specific.
3. Pastor Rob asked the question, "What do you need to wrap yourself up in, to change the direction of our life?" How would you answer this question in your life today?
4. When you consider the statement, "You become His disciple at the point you die," what can you take from this personally?
5. As you consider the sermon as a whole, what was the most impactful point that was made? Why do you think this point spoke to you personally? Explain your answer.
6. What is one point of action that you can implement this week as a result of this passage and the sermon preached?
