Ice Breaker:

What's something you always wanted to do as a child, but never did it? Why didn't you ever do it and would you still consider doing it today?

Explore the Text:

Take a minute to read through the series text that was preached two weeks ago from II Corinthians and discuss any themes that you noticed.

Describe how Paul moves from the previous passage (11:28-33) into this week's portion?

What would you consider to be the primary verse or key phrase from this passage?

Sermon Review Questions:

1. Tell about a time when you experienced “good things happening to bad people” or “bad things happening to good people.” What did you learn from this experience and how did it shape your view of life?
2. Describe a way in which God has “balanced your life with negatives” and how have you come to view this today?
3. In what ways have you found the right kind of poison to be beneficial in your life? Have you witnessed this principle in the life of someone else?
4. Describe something that this message revealed about the character of God, the Person of Jesus, or the ministry of the Holy Spirit? Explain your answer and what you learned in the process.
5. As you consider the sermon as a whole, what was the most impactful point that was made? Why do you think this point spoke to you personally? Explain your answer.
6. What is one point of action that you can implement this week as a result of this passage and the sermon preached?
