

Brantley Scholarship Application 2023

Thomas and Margaret Brantley were devout Christians who also believed in a good education. They left an endowment to help students and their families improve their quality of life by sharing what they have with others.

The guidelines for qualification and additional documents required are listed on a separate page.

With prayerful and prudent consideration, the committee will announce the recipients for the upcoming academic year no later than March 31, 2023.
