My Redeemer, Ruth 4

Hello Church, this Sunday we are wrapping up the look at the Book of Ruth and how it speaks to us about God's Redeeming Love. But we are also going to see how Ruth's story is a part of God's larger story.

In the Garden of Eden, when humanity sinned, God was ready with a plan to redeem. (Genesis 3:15) By Genesis 12 God chose a nation to be the vehicle of that redemption and by Genesis 49:10 God focused on the Tribe of Judah as the specific tribe through which Jesus would be introduced to the world.

Ruth's story gives us a glimpse as to how God's story can enfold our story. What does it take to have your story become a part of God's story for the redemption of the world?
