HOME GROUP STUDY
Week 3

"LET'S GET THIS STARTED!"

Welcome to our Home Group companion study for the teaching series The Unveiling: Righteousness, Redemption, and Hope in Romans. Throughout the coming year, we will be making our way through Romans, with some breaks along the way.

This study is designed as a companion to Crosspoint's weekend teaching. It will help you to discuss and apply the content from the message. It also provides an option for you to dig deeper into the Word of God. You will find it uses the same core text from the sermon.

We encourage you to prayerfully read through this study before your meeting. Make changes as you see fit. You know your Home Group better than we do, so adjustments and alterations to the questions are inevitable. There is no perfect curriculum that perfectly matches every group's needs and journey.

As always, we welcome and appreciate your feedback on this curriculum. Be prepared to share your insights at the next Home Group leaders huddle, or email us.

A BASIC AGENDA

These are the basic elements in every Home Group meeting. You have the option of doing either the "message reflection" or the "deeper in the Word" sections. You likely won't have time to do both, especially if your group likes to share. Remember, the goal of your group is to build transformed lives, not to keep an agenda. Pay attention to what the Holy Spirit is doing. If you need to change things up, go for it.

ICEBREAKER

Take ten minutes to reconnect and get to know each other.

MESSAGE DISCUSSION

Discuss the teaching from the Sunday message. Hopefully, you've all seen it!

DEEPER IN THE WORD

Dig into the core scripture passage from the weekend teaching.

REFLECTION

Talk about the meaning of the text and how it personally applies.

PRAYER

Set aside time to share needs and pray for group members.

THERE ARE ONLY TWO KINDS OF PEOPLE - THOSE WHO SAY, "THY WILL BE DONE" TO GOD OR THOSE
TO WHOM GOD IN THE END SAYS,
"THY WILL BE DONE." ALL THAT ARE IN HELL CHOOSE IT.

CORE TEXT

ROMANS 2:1-11 (ESV)

Therefore you have no excuse, O man, every one of you who judges. For in passing judgment on another you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, practice the very same things. 2 We know that the judgment of God rightly falls on those who practice such things. 3 Do you suppose, O man—you who judge those who practice such things and yet do them yourself—that you will escape the judgment of God? 4 Or do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance? 5 But because of your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. 6 He will render to each one according to his works: 7 to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; 8 but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. 9 There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, 10 but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. 11 For God shows no partiality.

ICEBREAKER

If your group doesn't know each other well, or if you've been apart for a while, an icebreaker is a great way to assist you in getting reacquainted. Icebreakers also 'break the ice' and help people engage in conversation.

When you share information about yourself with others, and they accept you for who you are, it builds trust. This trust leads to greater transparency and openness. If you want some icebreaker ideas, check out the resources at the end of this book.

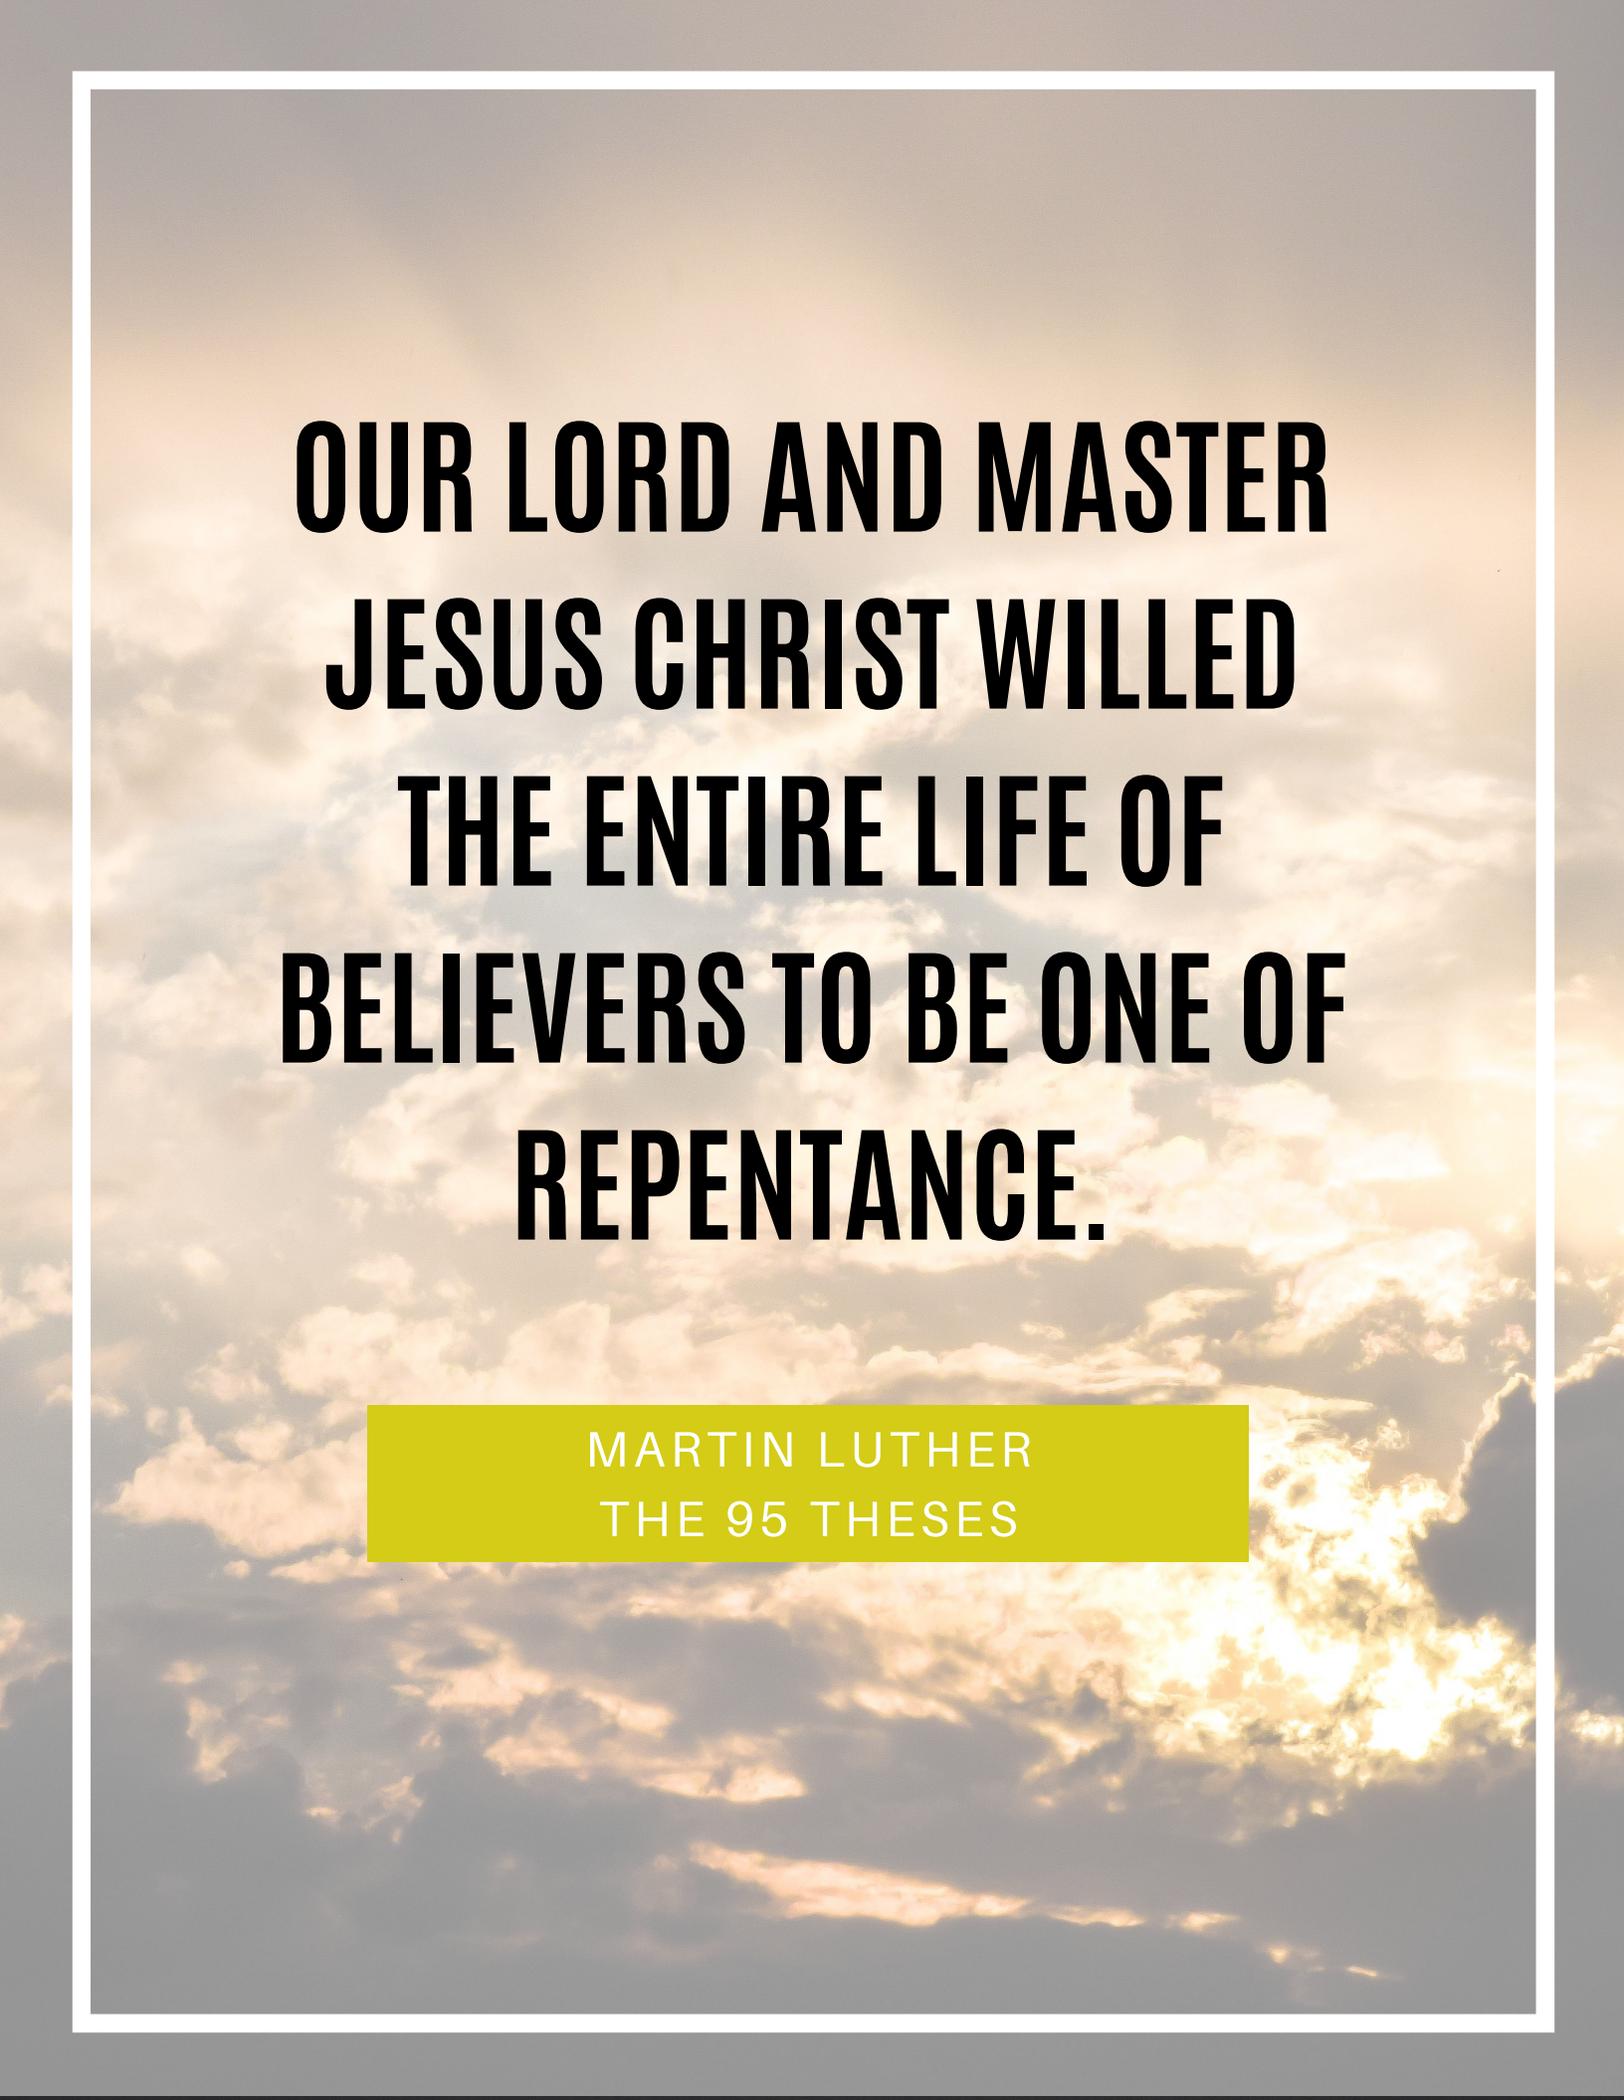

IF I TRUST YOU WITH MY STORY, YOU MIGHT TRUST ME WITH YOURS.

WEEKEND MESSAGE

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Have one or more people read the text out loud.

1. It's hard for many people to get their head or heart around the idea of a wrathful God. What challenges have you had with this biblical teaching?
2. God's judgment is universal, final, and fair. Why does it still not feel right for some people?
3. "God's final wrath is the culmination of living a life independent of God." How does this explanation sit with you?
4. "What does your urgency to judge reveal about the status of your heart?" How would you answer this question for yourself? Have you ever considered this question before?
5. Rob said that judging rightly means starting with yourself. Why do we often start with other people instead?
6. What is the difference between religious repentance and gospel repentance? How might you continue to avoid the one and embrace the other?

DEEPER IN THE WORD, PT. 1

ROMANS 2:1-11

Have one or more people read the text out loud before you start.

1. In the previous chapter, Paul was addressing the Gentiles. Whom does it seem like Paul is addressing in this section (v.1, 4)?
2. Why does Paul say, "therefore you have no excuse?" On what basis does he say this?
3. Why does Paul say that when we judge others, we condemn ourselves (v.1)?
4. What do you think it means to "presume on the riches of his kindness"? Can you think of an example of how you might do that?
5. God's final wrath in 2:5-11 parallels what is written in Revelation 20:11-15. What do they have in common? What is not in both accounts? How does Romans 5:9 help us understand the Lamb's book of life?
6. In verses 6-11, Paul unfolds how God's righteous judgment works. Why do you think he spends time explaining this?
7. If God's judgment will come first to Jews and then to Greeks (v.9), and his favor first to Jews and then to Greeks (v.10), then how can Paul say God shows no partiality (v.11)? You might want to read ahead to 2:12, 23-24.
