

This Sunday we will be looking at I Peter 3:8 - 22 to see how suffering can be a part of sharing the Gospel with others. Our willingness to suffer or to put ourselves at the disadvantage in our relationships with others is the very gateway through which the gospel penetrates the hardened soul. There are examples of Christians caught in the midst of violence experiences who stepped up into the face violence with the love of Jesus and led the person safely home to God.

God has a plan for our lives. Are we willing to trust Him with our lives? Am I willing to trust him with my life?

This Sunday we will be considering what it means to “Serve Others to Bring Them Home”.
