

As We Proclaim

Ab Fm Ab
In the wake of the Unquenchable Fire, Architect of the universe
Ab Db Ab
Who knows every heavenly body, sets them each on their whirling course

Db Eb
Glorify, praise the name
Db Eb
We give You honor as we proclaim

*Ab Fm
In the gaze of the Great I Am, in whose presence Moses babbled and shook
Ab Eb Db Ab
The God who scorned Saul's pride and wrestled Jacob by the brook

Db Eb Fm Ab Db
Knows the paths leviathans take, sees the grazing doe and fawn
Db Eb Fm Eb Db Eb Ab
Hears the cries of a lonely child, as He pulls the earth to meet the dawn

Fm Ab Db Eb
Oh, mystery God of power and fame, why have You stooped to call my name?

*(like this stanza)

Jesus, You and He are the very same, yet You came among us when You wrapped on flesh
You have defined Your sheep by Your very Name as the kingdom of the living among the dead

Fm Eb Db Eb
Oh, the mountain that was once on fire and encompassed by the darkness

Db Eb
Oh, this mountain, You've made it Zion

Fm Eb
And You've covered us in Your righteousness

Db Fm Eb
The church of Christ, and His righteousness

Ab Eb
Thank You, Father, for this kingdom
Db Fm
We give our lives to praise Your name
Ab Eb
Holy sons and holy daughters
Db Ab
We see them drawn as we proclaim
