

JOURNEY CHURCH

We've heard over and over again this year how excited kids are to come to church! One family put it this way: "My daughter has been telling me for the past three days that she can't wait for church on Sunday to learn more about God! Thanks for all you do, Journey volunteers, for making an impact on so many kids' lives!"

- Tammy

I love being a part of the prayer team. With the chaos of our lives - bouncing between medical appointments, therapies, hospital visits, etc.. it's a way for me to feel connected to the church family. We are a family that loves to volunteer, so when Nathan's diagnoses got laid down on us it was heartbreaking that our vision of normal would be changed. This let's me feel like I can still help and contribute to the journey. I find moments throughout the week to open my prayer email and speak to God for these people. Sometimes it's just between doctors in a waiting room, sometimes it's when we're exhausted at the end of the day and all the energy I have is to read the email out loud. God hears it no matter how it comes. Jeremiah 29:12 - then you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen. - Michelle different people participated in a Network project or event in the past year.

I love being in the band. It's my way of giving back to God and a way to praise Jesus. It makes me feel good to share our music with everyone and that someone could see the light and start walking in Jesus' footsteps because of some lyrics they heard or by seeing imperfect people sharing a message. - Scott

This year many people took SIGNIFICANT NEXT STEPS... Baptism, Serving, Groups, Inviting, in Generosity, Volunteering and Beginning a Relationship with Jesus.
