

NOT ASHAMED • ROMANS 1:16

Romans 1:16 has been called one of the greatest verses in Scripture. Here we see that Paul is “Not Ashamed” of the gospel, rather he glories in the good news of Jesus Christ more than anything else in his life. These truths have sunk into his heart, and into the marrow of his bones. Now, he longs for others to share in the joys of the gospel, both in this life and in the life to come.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. The Joy of the Gospel

What does Paul mean when he says he is “not ashamed of the Gospel?” Why can we boast in the gospel with gladness?

2. The Gospel Defined

How did Matt define the gospel? Spend time discussing the different parts of this definition as a group.

3. The Power of the Gospel

What does the gospel save us from? And what have we been saved for?

4. The Reach of the Gospel

What does it mean that the gospel call is a universal call? How is the gospel call ordered?

5. Shaping Question

If the gospel is truly the power of God for salvation, what would it look like for us to live with that kind of confidence?
