

WHO IS LIKE THE LORD OUR GOD • MICAH 7:18–20

The final words of the book of Micah are a word of doxology, a crescendo of praise that teaches much about God in only a few words. Micah 7:18–20 begins with a rhetorical question, “Who is a God like you?” and then answers it that we may know about, and even more, that we might know the Lord in three specific ways. As 1. The God of Loving Forgiveness, 2. The God of Redeeming Compassion and 3. The God of Unchanging Faithfulness.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What is the difference between knowing about God and truly knowing God?
2. In what ways have you personally experienced God as the God of loving forgiveness, redeeming compassion, and unchanging faithfulness?
3. What does it look like for us to delight in the steadfast love of God? The sermon referenced the “expulsive power of a new affection.” What are some lesser loves or distractions in your life that begin to lose power when God’s love becomes your deepest delight?
4. The sermon warns that it’s possible to be around God's Word, people, and promises—and still miss God Himself. What practical steps can we take to ensure we’re not just going through the motions of Christianity, but truly walking in relationship with the Lord?
5. Shaping Question: How are you growing in knowing God?
