

FAR AS THE CURSE IS FOUND • MICAH 6:9–7:17

Micah 6:9-7:17 moves from darkness to light, from cursing to blessing. And the road between these contrasts is one of repentance. Through words of judgment, we feel the chill of sin; yet within the remnant of God's people, signs of life begin to spring forth. These verses unfold to show the nation restored, a new exodus led by the Good Shepherd, and the nations of the world bowing in worship to the One True God.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Shaping Question: How have you felt the weight of sin's curse in your own life, even recently?
2. What are the words of judgment issued in Micah 6:13-16? And what are the consequences of sin mentioned in 7:1-6?
3. Read Micah 7:7. What are three steps of encouragement that Micah gives us in this verse? What does this reveal about the posture of faith during seasons of despair or spiritual dryness?
4. Have you come to the realization that you too are a sinner? Have you come face to face with the holiness of God? How have you tried to hide or explain away the sin in your own life?
5. The sermon compares Jesus to a "True and Better Exodus." What does this comparison reveal about Christ's role in both judgment and redemption? How does this deepen your understanding of God's plan throughout Scripture?

PRAY: Use 7:14-17 as a prayer of supplication to be read/prayed as a group.
