God is faithful to _____ his _____

In the book of Judges, usually Israel _____ out to God before He rescues them, but God sent Samson _____ Israel asking

Jesus is a constant reminder that God loved His people _____ we ever loved Him

Because God loved us _____, we are able to love _____ first

God is faithful to _____ his _____

The problem the book of Judges highlights is that we are supposed to do what is right in the eyes of _____, but too often we do what is right in our _____ eyes

Though the Lord is not _____ with our sins, he never _____ his good

plans for his people

God's faithfulness makes his people want to obey _____, not less

God is faithful to _____ his _____

Though God's people may appear _____, God always completes his purposes

Sometimes the Lord waits to complete his purposes until all _____ seems lost.

We this especially on the _____

Through Jesus. God keeps his promise to save us from our sins
