Freedom _____ the Futility of False _____

We should feel very strongly about the _____, because anyone teaching what is not true about God is leading people into _____.

Everyone in the world has _____ in something. But only those whose faith is in Jesus will not be _____.

Freedom _____ the Anxiety of Uncertain _____

When the Bible talks about hope, it doesn't mean something we _____ would be true.

It means something we _____ will be true, but we have to _____ for it. If we are accepted and loved by God based on the things we _____, then we can never be _____ of his love. Only the grace of God through Jesus gives us _____ that he loves us.

Freedom _____ the Confusion of Misdirected _____

The message of the cross _____ us by saying that no matter what we do, we will _____ be good enough on our own. We can know what someone _____ by looking at how they _____. The gospel is not just something we believe in our minds, it's something we have to respond to with our daily choices.

Finish this important quote from John Calvin:

"We are saved by _____ alone, but the faith that saves is _____ alone."

God loves us because of Jesus, not because of how good we try to be.
