

The title of today's sermon is _____

We can confidently proclaim the Gospel of Jesus because God is at work to make our message effective.

The Spirit of God _____ Hearts

Like Philip, we never serve God _____. Instead, God calls us to _____ the work he is _____ doing.

One thing that gives us _____ to take the gospel to our neighbors, our family, our enemies, and even strangers is that the _____ is already at work before we _____.

We _____ know whose hearts God is preparing or _____ someone will believe, but we know that Jesus says there are people _____ to hear the good news so they can _____ him.

The Word of God _____ Hearts _____ of Scripture points us to Jesus, because all Scripture teaches us about our _____ for salvation and about how God _____ us salvation as a gift of his _____.

Do not underestimate the _____ of the Word of God! God's Word comes with his _____ that it will get the job done.

Nothing else speaks with the same truth and authority as the Bible because the Bible is not just ABOUT God. The Bible is FROM God. The Bible is the _____ of the one who _____ us, who _____ us, and who lovingly controls our future.

We can be brave and tell people the good news of Jesus because God is already making people ready to hear and believe.
