

The title of today's sermon is _____

Even though it's not always easy, God's children keep telling the truth about who God is.

The truth may not be _____.

The gospel is a message that brings people joy and peace, but the path to _____ and peace leads through things that _____.

We should not be _____ that people reject God's Word. In fact, we _____ be more surprised when people _____ believe it, because it is a _____ of grace when God changes their hearts.

The truth must not be _____.

It is very easy to get people to like us, if we just let go of the _____ about God. But when we do that, we are living to please _____ and not _____. If people are on a path to destruction, it is a _____ thing to insist they turn around, even if they don't want to _____ it.

The truth will not be _____.

The gospel wins by conquering our _____, and the church is the gathering of people who build their lives around the truth that the _____ rejects. Wherever the church is, God is _____.

The reason the truth wins in the end is because God is in _____. He works to make sure that what he _____ will come true.

God's people must persevere as messengers of his truth.
