

The title of today's sermon is _____

Though conflict exists among God's people, the grace of God ultimately triumphs.

The gospel community is not _____ to conflict

Which two people had a big conflict in this story? _____ and _____

The closer we are to other people in our _____, the more their sin will affect us.

Sometimes we have conflict even when nobody is sinning. We have conflict because we are _____ people.

The most important thing is not to figure out who is _____ and who is _____. The most important thing is to make sure we are _____ one another.

The gospel community is not _____ by conflict

Even when conflict is hard, it is not the _____ of the story.

God will _____ to work in our lives.

We are not undone by conflict because God is in _____, and he can and does use even the _____ things to bring about _____ things we never imagined.

In Jesus we learn that the way we approach conflict is not to _____, but to exercise _____ love for the sake of peace and unity.

Even though God's people don't always get along, God's grace wins in the end.
